Ad Sales (very, very important)

- Ads are placed in the Playbill
- Ad sales pay for the printing of the Playbill and contribute to the overall production cost
- Ads are sold to businesses and families (congratulatory ads)
- Prices are very reasonable
- Ask your neighbors, friends, co-workers, favorite restaurants, doctors, lawyers, real estate agents...you get it
- Ads can be paid online and by check
- All ad copy and payments are due February 20th
- Ad sale forms can be found on the website:
www.alphatheatre.com

Stay in the Loop AKA Communication

- Like the AlphaTheatre FB page
- Make sure we have your BEST email address, not the one you only check once in a while
- Ask your student if they are on the GroupMe chat
- Put www.alphatheatre.com in your Browser's Favorites and check it often. Rehearsal schedules are posted there, Fees can be paid and links to tickets

Rehearsals

- Rehearsal calendar is on www.alphatheatre.com
- Rehearsals are subject to change
- If your student is sick or cannot make a rehearsal please contact Sarah Stoffle ahead of time.
- When students miss rehearsals, it impacts the entire cast

What else?

- Students may be asked to purchase specific dance shoes or costume items.
- Students need their own make-up
- We will try to give you plenty of time to purchase these items

What is ARTSA?

- Hey, who or what is ARTSA
- Short answer: ARTSA is the Booster club for Theatre and Speech
- Long answer: ARTSA stands for Alpharetta Raiders Theatre and Speech Association
- Board members: Lora Bunarek ('21), Dana Miller ('21), Christina Singleton ('20) Ilka Calhoun ('19) and Julie Nelson ('18)
- What about YOU?
