Youth Film Festival Agreement (all filmmakers must read and sign)

I understand and agree to the following:

1. I understand that this is a competitive film festival and my film may not be selected for screening at the Festival.
2. I understand that this is an amateur film festival, and I will not be paid, or compensated in any way.
3. I attest that I am the primary filmmaker, editor, and director of this submission. I did NOT enlist the help of an adult filmmaker, editor, or professional film production company.
4. I hold BPHS / BPUSD harmless and not liable for any copyright or other legal infringements that may result from my film.
5. I attest that all audio and visual material submitted is original work, and that any copyrighted material has been used by proper legal permission and credited accordingly. (In order to avoid infringing upon copyrighted material, film-makers can search the internet for "royalty free" or "copyright free" music or music loops and sound effects).
6. If my film is selected for screening, I will submit any additionally requested materials to the Film Festival organizers by the date requested.
7. I understand my flash drive or DVD film submission and master files will not be returned.
8. I understand that my film can be disqualified if the material in it is inappropriate for an all-ages audience. All content, images, and language should be approximately a 'G' rating. Depictions of violence should be minimal. No nudity, sex scenes, no profanity or drug or alcohol use can be present in the film. Films cannot be propaganda for a cause, or promote racism, sexism, or any other offensive or inappropriate topic. The film organizers and judges reserve the right to disqualify any film for any reason.
9. I agree to grant BPHS the right to exhibit, publish, web broadcast, and use photographs and images of this entry forever.
