between Woodland and Elizabeth Streets

Quien se Beneficia: Cientos de peatones, corredores, paseadores de perros, etc. que recorren ambos lados de este puente cada día.

Who benefits: Hundreds of pedestrians, runners, dog-walkers, etc. who traverse both sides of this bridge each day.

Descripción del Proyecto: Repare las aceras dañadas en la vía peatonal muy utilizada que conecta Asylum Hill de Hartford y West End. Instale placas que identifiquen el puente en honor al poeta de Hartford Wallace Stevens [1879-1955]. Este puente forma un camino crítico a lo largo de "The Wallace Stevens Walk", que sigue la ruta diaria de Stevens desde su lugar de trabajo en Hartford Accident & Indemnity Company ("The Hartford") hasta su casa en Westerly Terrace.

Project description: Repair damaged sidewalks on this heavily-used pedestrian thoroughfare which connects Hartford's Asylum Hill and the West End. Install plaques identifying the bridge in honor of Hartford poet Wallace Stevens [1879–1955]. This bridge forms a critical pathway along "The Wallace Stevens Walk", which follows Stevens' daily route from his workplace at the Hartford Accident & Indemnity Company ("The Hartford") to his home on Westerly Terrace.
