

UWS

Parramatta
South Campus

Building EB

Background

University of Western Sydney is an Innovative Campus and encourages modern thinking to Education.

Objective

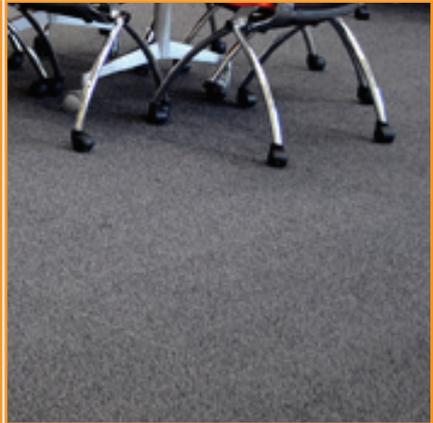

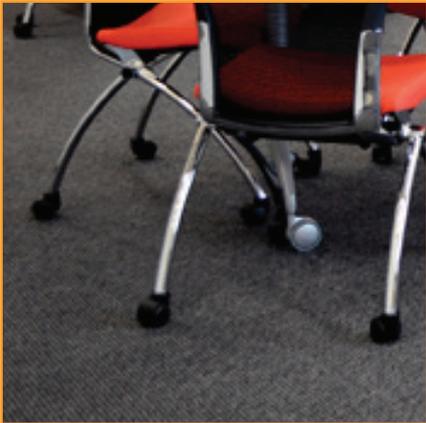

UWS wanted to create Open Learning Spaces for their students that are flexible and encourage collaboration between students.

Solution

Direct Ergonomics Buzz Folding Tables and Mesh Mobile Chair work great together and students can move them to create their desired learning space – all mobile and tables can flip up and move out the way easily. The Bravo seating in bright bold colours encourages active minds.

Result

The results speak for themselves. A great solution that has been implemented across three campuses.
