COURSE DESCRIPTION

Chinese Philosophy is an introduction to the major philosophers of the classical period in China (ca. 600—221 BCE). Topics include Kongzi (Confucius), Mozi, Yang Zhu, Mengzi (Mencius), the Daodejing, Zhuangzi, Xunzi, and Han Feizi. The course also attends to issues in East-West comparative thought, as well as to the relevance of classical Chinese philosophy for the contemporary world.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

There will be four exams, and a final paper. Regular attendance and participation are expected.

Exams [first, second, third, and final]: The exams will consist of fill-in-the-blank and short answer questions. The first three exams will be take-home. The final exam will be cumulative.

Final Paper [8 pages]: Topics and guidelines will be provided as the semester progresses.

Participation: Regular reading, preparation and participation are expected. Students are expected to read prior to class, and to participate in discussions throughout the semester.

GRADING INFORMATION

Your final grade will be calculated as follows:

First Exam:	15%
Second Exam:	15%
Third Exam:	15%
Final Exam:	25%
Final Paper:	20%
Attendance:	10%

I use a standard grading scale:

A	= 94-100%	B	= 84-87%	C	= 74-77%
A-	= 90-94%	B-	= 80-84%	C-	= 70-74%
B+	= 87-90%	C+	= 77-80%	D	= 60-70%

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Digital Technology: The use of laptops, tables, cellphones, and other digital devices is prohibited while class is in session.

Make-up Exams: Illnesses, family emergencies, and legitimate academic conflicts are the only excuses for missed exams. To receive a make-up exam, you must provide documentation.

Late Papers: Late papers will be marked down by 1/3 a letter grade per day late. For example, a paper that would receive a 'B' handed in on time will receive a 'C+' handed in two days late.

Blackboard: Course information and course materials will be available on Blackboard, SU's online learning system. To access the Blackboard website, go to <http://blackboard.syr.edu> and use your Syracuse NetID username and password to log in.

Academic Integrity: The Syracuse University Academic Integrity Policy will be enforced. The Syracuse policy holds students accountable for the integrity of the work they submit. Students should be familiar with the Policy and know that it is their responsibility to learn about instructor and general academic expectations with regard to proper citation of sources in written work. The policy also governs the integrity of work submitted in exams and assignments as well as the veracity of signatures on attendance sheets and other verifications of participation in class activities. Serious sanctions can result from academic dishonesty of any sort. For more information and the complete University policy, see <http://academicintegrity.syr.edu>

Special Accommodations: If you believe that you need accommodations for a disability, please contact the Office of Disability Services (ODS), <http://disabilityservices.syr.edu>, located at 804 University Avenue, room 309, or call 315-443-4498 for an appointment to discuss your needs and the process for requesting accommodations. ODS is responsible for coordinating disability-related accommodations and will issue "Accommodation Authorization Letters" to students with documented disabilities as appropriate. Since accommodations may require early planning and generally are not provided retroactively, please contact ODS as soon as possible.
