Dear Pastor,

Levi Pitman came and worked under me in Vanuatu from 2012-2014. During this time he was a great asset to our ministry and we are looking forward to having him and his wife return.

From my personal observation as a leader, I have noted that Levi:

- Has a fantastic servant's spirit
- Has a true desire to spread the Gospel
- Is reliable to see projects through to the end
- Is a man of integrity
- He is faithful & loyal
- Works well in a team environment
- Demonstrated leadership ability in overseeing many projects during his time here.

In addition to these traits, Levi also speaks the local language and is already familiar with the culture of Vanuatu. During his two and a half years here, he helped with many of our ministries such as youth activities, teaching Bible studies, and outreach hikes into jungle villages. Levi was invaluable to us as a mechanic and spared us thousands of dollars through of his repair skills. His ability to build and fix things was a tremendous help and allowed me to be free to focus on other ministries.

Jenn also spent 3 months in Vanuatu teaching in a local school on our island. She is has a sweet attitude and is blessing to those around her. Her skill set as a teacher and working with bilingual children will be an advantage to reach lost souls in Vanuatu.

This young couple will be a huge asset in serving our Saviour wherever they are.

Sincerely,

Jeremy Pinero
