Bumper Edition!

During this issue, not only do we have the Members Weekend and The CAMRA A.G.M. coming to the area (Sheffield), but it's that time of year for our Annual Beer Festival, in the sleepy and picturesque village of Elsecar. If you're off to the Sheffield weekend and bump into someone who looks a bit lost try and shove them in the right direction ie. North, over the Motorway!

Remember, whilst the Sheffield event is happening, a number of fringe events take place, with all venues trying to make an effort to attract the new visitors—so why not try them yourselves?

Inside, there is a centre-page pull out, detailing almost 100 Real Ale pubs in our district, for you to keep, AND USE! This listing I shall try and feature twice a year, this one is obviously missing some information, so if you all could help us to keep it up-to-date we shall be most grateful.

Underneath this you shall find details of our up-and-coming festival, let's all hope it will be as popular as the last few year's events. Details of past charity events, recent winners, forthcoming prize-nominated pubs, and information of all our campaigning issues are included.

Charity and Award

After having walked down the hill from Wombwell Station on a cold and damp February, Friday evening we arrived at the Angler's Rest to find a packed, thriving pub thronged with locals all enjoying a drink or two.

Margaret presenting the cheque to the Tykes, with Laurence (our Treasurer) looking on from the back

There was a selection of three ales on the bar and some real cider was stashed somewhere - Margaret found it!

We settled down to a few drinks to warm up, and then we started off the evening by presenting The Barnsley Tykes (our nominated charity of last year) with a cheque for £3646:60, we raised this with your help, through a sponsored walk, raffles, donations from the beer festival, a race night and various other events throughout the year.

Next up was Simone, the licensee of the Anglers for the last couple of years, she has transformed this roadside local into a great community pub. It is with great pleasure we hand over the award of Winter pub of the Season and her whole team can be very proud of themselves.

Simone Jowett receiving her prize from Pubs and Clubs Officer Phil Gregg

Michael Dugher, Phil Gregg and Eric

Later on in the evening, a busy bloke from Westminster turned up for a drink; Michael Dugher, the MP for Barnsley East. If he is looking to see what a proper pub should be like he's in the right place.

Hopefully he'll pass on his findings that public houses are not dens of iniquity or full of binge drinkers, and that the Government should at least give them a break.

The Sheriff's in Town – Imperial Brewery, Mexborough

Mexborough, South Yorkshire now boasts a second brewery – The Imperial Club & Brewery which re-opened in about December 2010. At this ex working men's club, brewer Gary Sheriff (previously of Wentworth Brewery and then White Rose Brewery) has installed a 5-barrel plant and brewing now takes place three times a week. The brewery is still being put together and tidied up, but is currently producing three beers: Imperial Bitter 3.9%, Imperial Blonde 4.0% and Imperial Stout 4.6%. I found the Bitter and Blonde to have a slight 'metallic' aftertaste, but no doubt once the installation work and recipes have settled down, so will the beers. The Stout was excellent though.

The brewery is situated just to the left of the main entrance and is presently uniquely behind a curtain at the back of the stage area – hopefully when fitting out is completed in the next 2-3 months, the brewery will be behind a glass partition which will allow viewing of the brew plant in operation.

The Club hosts live music evenings and brass band Sundays. An extensive food menu is soon to be introduced. If you're lucky the charming Jenny will serve all three of the Imperial brews. There were additionally three guest beers available at the time of my visit: Brewing Co - Old Bernard 4.4%; Ossett - Snow Drop 4.2% and Millstone - Grain Storm 4.2%.

The Club is situated directly opposite Mexborough bus station – there's just the minor problem of a dual carriageway in-between. So, go to Mexborough and see if the Sheriff's in town and try his beers.

In the Tap Room

What would you do if you won The Lottery?

I'm not talking about £10 or a couple of thousand, but a big win, maybe a few million. How about buying outright a closed city-centre pub, with a licence and all the original staff? Then popping along to the nearest supermarket and seeing how much they are selling their loss-leader beer for. Then you add 1p per drink; you can't undercut them! And that is the price you sell a good selection of proper real ales for.

Put up some big advertisements, with your prices displayed in enormous lettering. Run an ad. campaign on television and radio.

You then open; with CCTV cameras everywhere, security on the door, don't break any laws, don't serve anyone underage or drunk, and most of all you don't let anyone drink outside on the pavement or block the public highway.

Then you wait for the objections to flood in:-

Who do you think will be the first, and on what grounds?

Will it be the local pubs, the anti-drink do-gooders or the local chip shops—most probably it will be the supermarket.

But why should they? They're just doing this sort of thing already without the supervision or security?

There is nothing large stores can do about the off-sales once they're outside the shop. The alcohol could be then passed onto someone underage, drunk on street corners, and the empty containers spread around the streets.

This is where the antisocial drinking originates, not inside a controlled environment like a good pub.

BARNSELEY CAMRA?

CAMRA was formed in the early 1970's to campaign and fight for real ale and drinkers rights. The nature of the campaign has changed and diversified over the years but there are still battles to fight. CAMRA isn't a small group of enthusiasts but a nationwide army numbering 119,715 (374 in Barnsley) and growing – a bigger membership than most political parties, trades unions etc. We're big enough and active enough to be heard. Why not join us in the fight for a better deal for drinkers.

WHAT IS REAL ALE?

It's a name for draught (or bottled) beer brewed from traditional ingredients, matured by secondary fermentation in the container from which it is dispensed, and served without the use of extraneous carbon dioxide; also called 'cask-conditioned'.

Join CAMRA Today by using the Application form on the right or Online at www.camra.org.uk/joinus

Last competitions result : The winner of the last issues competition was: Mrs Denise Glover of Darfield. Mrs Glover will be drinking her prize at The Fitzwilliam, she will be receiving her reward shortly. I reckon she's a local?

The answer was The Fitzwilliam, Elsecar. Thanks to everyone who entered, we had over 65 submissions

This place has recently been refurbished, I went in a couple of weeks ago and was pleasantly surprised to see some decent beer being served.

JD Wetherspoon has kindly agreed to supply all new and renewing members £20 worth of JD Wetherspoon real ale vouchers as part of their CAMRA membership package!

The vouchers will be sent to you in the post automatically when you join CAMRA or renew your membership (whether by cash or DD payments). Members will have approximately a year to spend all of their vouchers.

The vouchers are split into 4 sheets of '50p off a pint units', with each sheet having a 3 month deadline. Only one 50p off a pint voucher can be used per visit.

There are two reasons for these conditions -

1. CAMRA promotes responsible drinking and if we supplied £20 worth of vouchers that could be used in one visit to the pub, then this could be seen to not support this policy.
2. This offer is obviously very generous from JD Wetherspoon and they feel this scheme will encourage people to visit a number of their fantastic pubs across the UK throughout the 12 month's of their CAMRA membership.

The idea of this added benefit is very simple and good fun. Put the vouchers in your wallet / purse and use them when you are near a JD Wetherspoon pub and fancy a nice pint of cool real ale!

Please note: Joint CAMRA memberships will receive only one set of vouchers to share.

Borough Market, London

I have enjoyed seeing TV chefs visit Borough Market and I was even more excited by the real thing. It was not like Harvey Nichol's foodhall, which is full of over priced food designed to be put on plates by people who never cook. It was heaven for people like me who love buying food, cooking it and sharing the eating with friends over a drink.

Borough Market is beneath the railway viaducts between the river Thames and Borough High Street and near London Bridge Station. It sprawls around atmospheric, narrow streets and footpaths and has a central labyrinthine with two more markets. The website gives a list of stalls, opening times and a virtual tour. I highly recommend it and was saved from spending a fortune because I was staying overnight with no fridge and no car. I tried many things including mulled cider from the Somerset Cider Brandy stall and I also bought a bottle of their cider brandy.

Cider Brandy

I bought the standard cider brandy which was lovely and not as harsh as some French Calvados. There is also an English tradition of making cider brandy and the first written records go back to 1678. The Somerset Cider Brandy Company was, in 1989, granted the first full cider distilling licence in recorded history.

The Company also sells a special cider brandy called Shipwreck. In January 2007 a container ship called the Napoli was beached off the coast of Devon and, amongst its cargo, were containers holding some very fine barrels made with Allier oak, on their way to South Africa to be filled with wine. Somerset Cider legally acquired these barrels, which had been protected from the sea by Bibles written in Zulu. The barrels were filled with 10 year old Cider Brandy. I do not remember the barrels but I do remember the TV pictures of people retrieving motor bikes etc, etc.

Cider cream

This is a quick pudding served with a shortbread biscuit or as an alternative to custard with an apple pie/crumble. Try adding some soft fruit and then change the spirit to match the fruit e.g. amaretto with apricots, whisky with raspberries, The cider brandy is too good and too expensive to cook with so I used Calvados.

225ml double cream

100ml sweet cider or 1 tbs of Calvados

1 tbs caster sugar

Whisk the cream and sugar until stiff then fold in the cider or liqueur. Adjust sweetness to taste.

Caciobirraio Cheese

I also bought this cheese which was more expensive but it was a quality cheese and not ordinary cheese mashed up with something strange.

Caciobirraio is a soft version of a hard cheese made with cow's milk from the Treviso hills, north of Venice. It is left to ripen and mature and then it is immersed in double malt artisan beer so that it has the taste of cheese and the outside smells and tastes of hops and beer.

I really enjoyed this cheese with a glass of IPA and had a warm glow remembering my visit to Borough Market.

Some other Brewery News

Two Roses Brewery

"Work on the brewhouse is progressing well and the finishing touches are being made and will be finished for the planned installation date in March. The focus is then moving onto the rest of the unit with plans to create a sampling room. First deliveries have already been scheduled for the middle of April and we are looking to supply pubs in Sheffield for the CAMRA AGM". Hopefully they might get something ready for our beer festival? (ed)

Wentworth Brewery

December was very difficult with the weather badly interfering with deliveries. January however was way ahead of expectations and trade was very strong, long may that continue. The bottling plant has been used extensively during 2011 with orders stretching into April/May with no sign of a let up. The recently refurbished Commercial in Chapeltown is still supporting the brewery strongly and many thanks to Paul and his team there.

Richard the Brewer has been working like a trooper which is very impressive especially with the time he needed to give on organising Rotherham Beer and Music Festival. I'm sure that it was a very successful event.

Revolutions Brewery

They have now been brewing for three months at Brass Monkey, but I understand they are almost ready for the move to their own premises, with all new plant.

Sunday 27th March at The Hop in Leeds will see the launch of a limited edition ale: 'Age of Reason' - there will be a chance during the afternoon to 'Meet the Brewers' and most of the rest of their beers will be on the bar. Another brewery I hope to see at our Festival (ed)

Dear Man at the BAR

I love visiting my local pub but I am often sat in the corner with a book to read drinking my beer all alone. I am not after a chat up line, just a few ideas to kick off a conversation while in the pub.

Dear Speechless,

I think you should try reading the paper, maybe the sports pages, everyone talks news and sport, however here are few other popular ice breaking topics.

- Who is the most interesting person that drank with you?
- Where in the world would you most like to drink a beer?
- What has been the most life-changing experience you've ever had?
- What is the most spontaneous thing you've ever done?
- Who's had the biggest influence on your life?
- What thing that you haven't yet done would you most like to do?
- What historical figure do you most identify with?
- What kind of music do you like?
- Have you tried the real ale in the pub?
- Have you heard that another pub in Barnsley has been demolished?

The ideas here just show that interesting topics of conversation don't need to be complex or intellectual - in fact, the more ordinary the better, because then people feel qualified to talk about the topic.

Happy Chatting

Another Closure?

Another objection letter:

I am the Pubs officer for the Barnsley Branch of The Campaign For Real Ale (CAMRA). After consultations with our branches, current 380 members some of whom are local residents I would like to object to the recent planning application 2011/0264 to demolish The Lundwood Hotel public house and construct 14 new dwellings. We are extremely outraged at the prospect of losing another community public house in an area that has seen a number of pub closures over recent years.

The Lundwood Hotel is a lovely large public house in the heart of the village of Lundwood. The pub is today and has been for many years a popular and much loved part of the community and a fantastic asset to the village's residents and businesses. The attractive pub architecture is typical of the large pubs constructed during the heyday of the local mining industry. Sadly over recent years these pubs have become victims to developers due to their attractive plot size. We feel that as part of the town's heritage Barnsley Council should be doing its utmost to preserve these buildings as opposed to building new characterless housing that is not in keeping with the area.

The area around Lundwood has recently seen the closure of other community pubs namely The Priory Arms at nearby Cundy Cross and the Butchers Arms, Monk Bretton. The Lundwood hotel is the only pub within easy walking reach for the majority of the residents. The pub has long been an asset to the local community but due to lack of investment and poor upkeep has sunk into a poor state. However we feel strongly that the local community should not have to suffer due to bad management of previous licensees and pub companies. The traditional British pub is the heart of the community and with very few remaining in the area the closure would be devastating to the local community. The pub is one of only two pubs remaining in the immediate area. The other has been closed for some time and also subject to arson attacks.

In the last twelve months we have seen the loss of around 14 pubs within the Barnsley borough. This equates to around 4.8 % of the entire pubs within the borough, with a further 15 permanently or temporarily closed. There have been no new pubs built within the borough. With the possibility of further closures on the horizon we feel that enough is enough and developers should be encouraged into using currently part finished or undeveloped sites rather than losing our community assets, historic public houses and green belt land similar to the part developed areas at nearby West Green.

The current economic downturn has seen a huge number of pubs struggling many due to lack of support from pub companies etc. Over recent times pub companies have recognised the market for locally produced beers and are now allowing their tenants to offer their customers a locally brewed beer, and alternative leasing options. The Lundwood Hotel is typical of pubs in the area, however if developed, managed and run correctly we see no reason why the pub couldn't be turned into a successful community pub as others in the area have done like the nearby Star Inn, Cudworth & Sun Inn, Monk Bretton. The other pubs in the area all have a cosy style feel and appeal to a mixed clientele base by offering a wide range of drinks and food. Quite often pub companies spend little time consulting the local residents and customers as to what they want from their local pub and focus more on stereotypical theme

We have received an unprecedented amount of comments from our members and the general public all of whom are horrified at the thought of losing one of Lundwood's most prominent Public houses.

We look forward to your response.

Available now... THE GOOD BEER GUIDE 2011

The Good Beer Guide is the long-established pub guide which is beloved by beer enthusiasts. The Guide contains 4500 of the top real ale pubs in the UK including details of which beers they serve, opening hours and address and additional information on food, amenities for families and atmosphere. As well as being a pub guide, the book contains details on all the country's breweries from the largest companies to the smallest microbreweries. It also includes tasting notes for the vast majority of beers brewed in the UK. This guide is indispensable for beer lovers and includes a selection of features on beer, brewing and pubs. You can buy the Good Beer Guide from bookshops but CAMRA makes more money which we then plough back into campaigning if you buy directly from us. The new edition will be published in September and you can place your order now.

NEW!

Find the best pubs on your mobile phone

CAMRA has launched a new mobile phone service to help you track down the best real ale pubs from the Good Beer Guide. This new service features full contact details, pub descriptions and maps sent direct to your phone. The application is also available on i-phones.

A new satellite navigation service is also available featuring Good Beer Guide pubs for TomTom devices. Further information at www.camra.org.uk/gbg

CAMRA and FSB Back pub reform Bill

Tied Public Houses (Code of Practice) Bill has potential to offer simple solution to counteract loss of valued community pubs

CAMRA, the Campaign for Real Ale, and the Federation of Small Businesses (FSB) have given their full backing to Martin Horwood MP in advance of a Parliamentary debate on the Tied Public Houses (Code of Practice) Bill. The Bill focuses on the continued necessity for reform of the beer tie, improving lease conditions for tied publicans, and increasing consumer choice, quality and value at the bar. The 10 minute rule Bill, set to be introduced after Prime Minister's Questions, has already received strong cross party support, and has been lauded as a simple solution to the complex problem of the 'beer tie' (as operated by large pub companies), an issue whereby a high proportion of pubs in the UK are run under 'tie' arrangements which prevent publicans buying beer and other products on the open market. Unfair conditions imposed by large pub companies are contributing to the closure of 29 community pubs per week across the UK.

Martin Horwood MP will present the Bill in Parliament on Wednesday March 9th. The Bill reads:

Tied Public Houses (Code of Practice) Bill Bill to require the Secretary of State to introduce a statutory code of practice to require certain pub owning companies to provide their tied lessees with a guest beer option and the option to become free of tie accompanied by an open market rent review and for connected purposes.

This potentially groundbreaking Bill by Martin Horwood MP comes at a time when the Government's commitment to endorse the recommendations of the Business, Innovation and Skills select committee report into pub companies in 2010 means that pub companies have until June 2011 to self-reform and improve their business practices. Failing to do so will result in pressure on the Government to intervene and implement a statutory code of practice requiring the large pub companies to offer guest beer and free of tie options to all their tied publicans.

Spring pub of the Season

The Cherry Tree at High Hoyland
Has been selected as our Pub of the Season for Spring.

It is a large roadside pub with several cosy rooms and a good selection of ales. As a group, we have visited this popular local frequently, the views from the seating area at the front are outstanding and the beers are always on top form. Although a bit 'out-of-the-way' and certainly not on the well-beaten track, it is thriving although only a couple of buses a day pass outside! Because of this we are running a mini-bus from Barnsley on the night of the presentation Friday 6th. May, details are on the socials page. Please come along and join us to help celebrate one of the best hostelrys in our area.

Only four away games left for Barnsley F.C. this season now – and all in April. To date this season we've only managed three away wins and four draws: the other ten we've all lost! So we must find the best places for ale on our travels to make the effort worthwhile, CAMRA's 2011 Good Beer Guide (G.B.G.) will as always bring us to the final four quality pints and pubs.

Saturday 2nd April – Crystal Palace

The Croyden section in this year's G.B.G. offers six great pubs. Over the years we've featured two of the current entries and today's choice is the Royal Standard, 1, Sheldon Street (CR0 1SS). This traditional street-corner local is a former CAMRA regional Pub of the Year. It is situated close to the bustle of central Croyden but provides a peaceful retreat with its sensitively restored interior of three distinct drinking areas. The fine beer quality reflects the landlords assured cellarmanship.

Fuller's Chiswick Bitter, London Pride, ESB, and seasonal beers are the permanent hand-pulled ales, whilst beer festivals have been a popular innovation. There is a surprisingly quiet garden area opposite, almost beneath the Croyden flyover.

Open: 11 am 'till Midnight Saturdays

Tel: (020) 8688 9749

Nearest tramstop: George St.

Saturday 16th April – Middlesborough

Still only one entry in the G.B.G. for this massive town is such a surprise. The Star, 14 Southfield Road (TS1 3BX) is a large and very popular pub situated opposite the University campus, recently sympathetically modernised with a licensee dedicated to promoting a wide variety of real ales, four beers are usually available together with Weston's Old Rosie cider. A contemporary, relaxed atmosphere prevails with sofas and easy chairs adding to the ambience. The pub attracts a wide-ranging clientele and gets extremely busy at weekends. Good value food is on offer. The smoking area is heated and covered.

CHAMPION AWAY ALES

Open: 11am 'till 1am Saturdays.
Tel: (01642) 245307

Saturday 23rd April – Watford

Watford's two G.B.G. entries have both appeared in previous 'Away Ales' so today we'll be revisiting the West Herts Sports Club, 8 Park Avenue (WD18 7HP) last used in April 2008. This club house features a comfortable, modern bar decorated with a sporting theme, most major sporting events are screened here and pub games are played. Guest beers are mostly from small independents, served in oversized glasses. Rolls and pies are usually available. The Function room, home of the CAMRA Watford Beer Fest for the past 15 years, is available for hire. The club is open to non-members up to three times a year – but show a current CAMRA membership card or a copy of the G.B.G. for entry.

Open: Noon 'till Midnight Saturdays.

Tel: (01923) 229 239

Web: westhertssports.co.uk

Saturday 30th April – Sheffield United

The Sheffield South section of the G.B.G. gives three choices one of which is an off-licence, and one we went to last season. The White Lion, 615 London Road, Heeley (S2 4HT) is a superb multi-roomed pub situated in the busy Heeley Bottom area. Many parts are Grade II listed. Small rooms lead off the original tiled corridor, The larger room at the rear is a venue for the local bands that play most Thursdays. Kelham Island Easy Rider, Taylor Landlord, and Tetley Bitter feature regularly, whilst the guest beers are chosen from the Punch list and often include LocAles. Weston's Old Rosie cider is sometimes available. First-time visitors should note the original Gilmour's windows with the unusual spelling of Windsor.

In the eighties I used this as a local. It used to sell the best pint of Leeds Tetley's (on autovac!) in the area, - a great pub (ed.)

Open : Noon 'till 11:30 Saturdays.

Tel: (0114) 255 1500

Don't forget this event as well!

Helping you make the most of your weekend

Whether you have attended a MW & AGM before or you are a first-timer, the following pointers should help you plan ahead and make the most of your weekend.

Planning ahead

1. You should have pre-registered by now to receive your handbook and badges in advance saving you queuing time at the registration desk - other than to collect your conference pack.

2. Trips - Make sure you book any trips, brewery open days or guided walks in advance.

3. To help you get around and make the most of Sheffield, tram tickets will be available to buy from HQ as well as on site at AGM. These will be sold at a discounted price.

4. Remember to bring your membership card with you!

At MW & AGM Sheffield Winter Gardens

1. Check in at the AGM venue and collect your conference pack on the Friday evening. Make sure you arrange to meet anyone you know in the Members Bar for a pint (or two...or three...) of delicious beer!

2. The food counter at the AGM venue will be serving breakfast sandwiches and hot drinks before the conference starts, so you will not have to go hungry if your hotel doesn't provide this.

3. The food counter will also be open for lunch, providing a variety of foods. Alternatively you may like to head off to a pub, cafe or restaurant. The tram could prove very convenient for this.

4. To attend a workshop or policy discussion group, check the schedule in your conference pack.

5. Attend the workshops in good time to ensure that you get a good choice of seats.

6. Participate in debates; your comments should be respected by all even if not everyone agrees with you. Likewise you should respect what others have to say on the same basis.

7. Look out for the CAMRA merchandise stand - the lanyards and local pub guides could prove useful.

8. Evening time is social time. The Members Bar and food counter will be open at the AGM venue until late. You may also like to head out into the city and explore the pubs, bars and restaurants that Sheffield has to offer.

9. On Sunday you will have to check out of your hotel before attending the final conference session. There will be a luggage facility available at the AGM venue, free of charge, however items will be left at your own risk.

We hope you enjoy your weekend!

And remember there is so much more to South Yorkshire than just Sheffield!

To help you on your way there is a centre-page pull-out, in this magazine, listing the 'Real pubs in Barnsley'.

The Trials & Tribulations of Planning a Festival

For the last few years we have been holding our Annual Beer Festival at The Milton Hall in Elsecar. This venue is just about the right size for us, has the transport links, good pubs within the area—and most important, we can afford to hire it for a week!

It normally happens over the Easter Holiday Weekend, and after last year's success we booked this year's straight away; however Easter moves every year (something to do with full moons) and we had booked it the wrong week, clashing with something else.

We then plumped for the week later (May Day Weekend) and then tried to think of some sort of theme: ie. silly hats/shirts etc. and one that included myself and Jeremy dancing around a may-pole!

After a few weeks of e-mails flying around, a couple of totally unconnected people decided to get married on the Friday and we all get an extra bank holiday.

Thank you so much.

So, if you would like to pop along and toast the bride and groom with a few glasses of real beer and cider; or if you just want to get away from the tele and have a rest from all the loveys extolling the different virtues of silk or organza and whether the weather will hold up come and join us.

What people seem to forget is the amount of work and people that go into organising one of these things: there are all the bar, cellar, kitchen, door, games and membership staff plus all the organising that has gone on over the last year. Publicity composed and distributed. Tickets and tokens printed. All the equipment has to be sourced, cleaned and prepared, the beer ordered, bars and stillage erected, beers made ready. Glasses cleaned and boxed up, and only then can we open.

ALL DONE WITH VOLUNTEERS

We can Party!

A short walk away, from Elsecar, In Wentworth, the coming of age of the eldest son had traditionally been celebrated on a lavish scale. In 1807, when the 5th. Earl Fitzwilliam, reached this milestone, the family gave a party for 10,000 guests. The Iris, a Sheffield newspaper, carried this report:

May 5th. 1807

Yesterday, being the 21st. anniversary of the birthday of Lord Milton, the only son and heir of Earl Fitzwilliam, the day was most munificently celebrated at Wentworth House. Two oxen weighing together 240 stone where roasted whole on the lawn, in sheds erected for the purpose; these had been feeding for upwards of three years past, and are supposed to have been the finest and fattest beasts ever grazed in this county. Twenty sheep had also been previously roasted in quarters, which with the beef, bread, etc and more than 17,000 quarts of strong ale, principally brewed several years ago for this festival, were distributed among the multitudes who assembled in the park, and whose numbers, notwithstanding the wetness of the day, have been estimated at 10,000.

During the forenoon and in the evening the roads on either side of Wentworth where darkened with crowds of people on foot, on horseback, in gigs, in chaises, coaches, carts and wagons. Yet rainy and unfavourable as the day was, none who travelled to Wentworth had occasion to complain of the fare – except those who by their gluttonous and drunken indiscretion made beasts of themselves and converted the bounty of Lord Fitzwilliam and his son at once in the means and the punishment of sinning. About a thousand of the tenants and others were entertained most sumptuously in the House itself.

However, the household accounts show precisely what the crowds consumed:

- 3 roasted oxen, 336 stone in weight
- 2 Scotch bullocks, 130 stone
- 26 roasted sheep, 177 stone 6 pounds
- 3 lambs
- 3 calves
- 10 hams
- 54 fowls
- 240 bushels of wheat

Elsecar has always had close historic ties with Wentworth, having been the location of many of the Fitzwilliam family's early industrial ventures, including their flagship colliery. Although, now built up and merged with the nearby town of Hoyland, Elsecar still retains a number of rows of attractive stone-built cottages originally put up by the Fitzwilliam's for their workers, along with The Milton Hall (originally built by the 6th Earl to house an industrial exhibition in 1886).
