APPLICATION FOR ENROLMENT FORM – 2017 Academic Year pp 17-24

“True knowledge does not come from without, it unfolds and arises from within”

Swami Niranjanananda

1 Why You Need to Read This Handbook

This handbook gives you valuable information about your course – required texts, policies, etc.

Your application for enrollment in any course must be accompanied by your signature indicating that you have read and understood this document and agree to abide by its guidelines.

2 Yogic Studies

Yogic Studies is designed for personal growth and as a prerequisite for Teacher Training. There are two levels of Yogic Studies. The first level must be successfully completed to join the second.

= required during the residential learning period.

3 Teacher Training

Swami Satyananda: “If you dedicate yourself completely to the task of teaching yoga, it will be easy to express the positive side of your personality.”

Teacher Training courses explore the skills required for the planning and teaching of yoga in a range of settings. You will learn how to select appropriate practices for different class levels, from beginner to experienced. Other aspects include the skills needed for managing a professional practice. There are two levels of training, one building on the other:

Teacher Training 1: Prerequisite – Yogic Studies Level 1

Teacher Training 2: Prerequisites – Teacher Training 1 & Yogic Studies Level 2

These courses are continually reviewed, revised and updated to maintain high quality and to improve our service to our students. Therefore, enrollment in each subsequent course must be completed within 24 months of completion of the previous one. If that time period is exceeded, you may be required to retake any or all courses already completed.

= required during the residential learning period.

4 What Will I Be Doing During these Courses?

4.1 Overall Time Commitment

Each course comprises three parts:

- 1) The Residential Learning period involves attending theoretical and practical classes onsite.
- 2) The Individual Study period consists of home practices, quizzes, assignments and reading.
- 3) The Final Assessment period involves written and practical exams at the end of each Level.

Courses vary in length, depending on the course. The following chart depicts the residential learning period days, home practice weeks, and final assessment days for all four courses.

Course	Residential Learning Period Days	Home Study Weeks + Webinars	Final Assessment Days
Yogic Studies 1	9 (Friday eve to next Sun afternoon)	24 weeks; 2 webinars	1
Teacher Training 1	9 (Friday eve to next Sun afternoon)	28-30 weeks; 2 webinars	1-2
Yogic Studies 2	9 (Friday eve to next Sun afternoon)	32 weeks; 3 webinars	1
Teacher Training 2	9 (Friday eve to next Sun afternoon)	28-30 weeks; 2 webinars	2

To receive a Certificate of Completion for TT1 and TT2, the following independent training is required:

- A current First Aid and CPR certification through a recognized agency such as the Red Cross, American Heart Association, etc. which requires approximately 1 additional day of study.
- Darkness to Light's "Stewards of Children" course, a 2-hour online training in child sexual abuse prevention.

Note: Teacher Training students must schedule individual teaching practicals with their Course Coordinator. See Section 4.4 below.

4.2 What is the Time Commitment during the Residential Learning Period?

The Residential Learning Period of each course offers an immersion in the many facets of yoga and yoga teaching. Classes and activities run the whole day with short breaks and a lunch hour. It will be difficult to spend time on other projects, such as work, phone calls or email. There is no child care provided during these courses.

For a sample course timetable, please contact YANA at info@yogaacademyna.org.

4.3 What is the Time Commitment during the Home Study Period?

Following the Residential Learning Period, you continue at home with the digital submission of home practice reflections, written quizzes, and/or assignments. In addition, attendance is required at all scheduled webinars, onsite or online. Home Study is supported by comprehensive written resources as well as online community forums and contact with senior instructors via telephone or email. Plan to spend 10 to 20 hours each week on your studies, depending on the rate at which you read and take in new information.

Due to the comprehensive nature of these courses, it is recommended not to undertake other significant projects while you are doing Yogic Studies or Teacher Training. Experience has shown that people with extensive family (especially small children) and work commitments may find the work load challenging to manage without extra support.

4.4 How Should I Plan for the Final Assessments?

The Final Assessments for each course consist of online and practical assessments.

Practical Assessments for Teacher Training courses are arranged individually with your Course Coordinator. The assessment process will be discussed in detail during your course's induction.

5 Auditing Options

Yogic Studies may be audited for a reduced investment: auditing students attend classes during the Residential Learning Period and receive the course materials but no further work is expected or supported. Teacher Training may also be audited as a refresher course for those who have already completed that program.

6 Available Qualifications

A Certificate of Completion is awarded at the end of each Level of Yogic Studies indicating successful completion of all requirements and eligibility to advance to the next level of study.

A Level 1 Teacher Certificate is issued upon successful completion of Teacher Training 1.

A Level 2 Teacher Certificate is issued upon successful completion of Teacher Training 2.

Teacher Training 1 is registered with the Yoga Alliance at the 200-hour level. Teacher Training 2 is registered with Yoga Alliance at the 300-hour level. Completion of these courses enables one to apply for Yoga Alliance registration at the RYT-200 and RYT-500 levels, respectively.

Teachers interested in Accreditation within Satyananda Yoga, which brings trademark and other privileges, may apply for it. Accreditation will be discussed at the end of Teacher Training.

7 Selection and Enrollment Procedures

Although extensive yoga experience is not necessary to enroll in Yogic Studies, we recommend that you attend classes in Satyananda Yoga or familiarize yourself with this tradition through reading the Bihar books or purchasing available audio or video classes from the Atma Center.

7.1 Completing the Application For Enrollment

All prospective students must submit an Application for Enrollment (included in this document). Please note that acceptance in the course is not automatic. You may be asked to provide further information to support your application. In some cases, students may be closed out if the number of applicants exceeds the number of available course spaces.

All questions must be answered FULLY in order for the application to be processed. The application will be returned to you if there are unanswered or blank areas. If the completed application is not received prior to the enrollment date, you will incur a late enrollment fee. Application for enrollment must be accompanied by the minimum deposit amount. Any payment received with an application, minus the application fee, will be refunded if enrollment is not accepted.

Information collected in the application and interview process will be dealt with in accordance with our Privacy Policy.

7.2 Minimum Entry Requirement Criteria and Selection Criteria

- Minimum age of 18 years (16 with parental permission)
- Literacy and numeracy to Grade 10 at an American high school or equivalent
- English language proficiency to Grade 10 at an American high school or equivalent
- Average word processing and internet/email skills
- Ability to meet the time commitments of the course including residential stay requirements
- Successful completion of application process.

7.3 Access and Equity

YANA seeks to reflect the diversity in the community and is committed to making its courses relevant, accessible, fair and inclusive. We aim to minimize any disadvantage you may experience due to disability, social or geographical isolation or financial hardship.

Prospective students with a disability will be treated on the same basis as those without a disability. If you have a disability or a significant learning need that may affect your ability to participate in this course, please advise us. We will consult with you to determine if a reasonable adjustment can be made to accommodate your needs.

7.4 Recognition of Prior Learning

You may be eligible for advanced standing in a course because of prior formal or informal learning you have undertaken. This is called “recognition of prior learning” or RPL.

If you consider that you have relevant training or experience, request a RPL information pack. This guides you through the process of how to provide the evidence you need to obtain RPL. As RPL can only be determined on an individual basis, please allow two months for your application to be processed. There are costs associated with this process. Contact YANA for details.

8 Course Dates, Deadlines, Fees and Discounts

8.1 Definitions

The following terms and definitions are utilized throughout this section:

- The COURSE START DATE is the first day of the onsite Residential Learning period.
- A MINIMUM DEPOSIT is the amount specified for each course which must accompany the enrollment application for that application to be considered.
- The EARLY ENROLLMENT DEADLINE is 60 days before the course start date. The course fee must be paid in full by the early enrollment deadline to be eligible for the discount.
- An EARLY ENROLLMENT DISCOUNT of 10% is available to individuals who complete an application and pay IN FULL by the EARLY ENROLLMENT DEADLINE.
- The ENROLLMENT DEADLINE is 2 weeks prior to the course start date.
- A LATE PROCESSING FEE of $100 is added to any application received after the enrollment deadline.
- The STANDARD COURSE FEE is the fee for the course before any discounts (e.g., early enrollment discount, low income country discount) are applied.
- All fees are in US Dollars.

8.2 Deadlines, Due Dates and Penalties

For all courses, a fully completed, signed Application for Enrollment must be accompanied by the required minimum deposit. Incomplete Applications will not be considered.

All fees related to enrollment are due by the Enrollment Deadline OR by the Early Enrollment Deadline to qualify for the early enrollment discount. Applications that are not received by the Enrollment Deadline will be subject to a Late Processing Fee of $100.

Students will not be permitted to begin a course if full fees have not been received by the Course Start Date. PayPal offers a payment plan to those who need to make incremental payments. Please contact YANA for details.

8.3 Course Fees

Course fees cover all classes, activities, resource folders, course recordings, YANA-scheduled assessments, and specified meals during the residential learning period. If you are taking the full course (that is, not Auditing), your fees also cover feedback, support, and online resources during the home study period.

The Auditing fee is one-half the Standard Course Fee.

Text books, accessories and accommodations are NOT included in the course fees. Assessments not taken as per the YANA schedule may require additional fees.

8.4 Residential Fees

Limited overnight accommodation for courses held at the YANA facilities in Cleveland, Ohio is available on a first-paid, first-served basis in our nearby Residential Facility, Kurukshetra. If you have requested accommodation, once your enrollment is approved, you will be billed for your stay, payable by the terms stated on your invoice. Reservations will only be held with full payment.

Single and shared room options are considered on a space-available basis.

One bedding packet consisting of pillow, blanket and sheets as well as some towels/ washcloths is available for your use at no additional charge. You are also welcome to bring your own linens and towels if you prefer.

Please refer to the website (yogaacademyna.org/student-information.php) for current room rates.

8.5 Early Enrollment Discounts

An Early Enrollment Discount is available for completed applications paid IN FULL by the Early Enrollment Deadline. Check yogaacademyna.org/calendar, phone 216-217-0691 or email info@yogaacademyna.org for information on the dates and amounts of discounts applicable to each course. These discounts are not available to those who receive a low-income country discount. If you are experiencing extreme financial hardship, please contact us to discuss your situation.

8.6 Discounts for Low Income Countries

Discounts off the standard enrollment fees apply for overseas students from countries with low average income relative to the USA. If you feel you are from a country that would qualify for a discount, please contact us directly at info@yogaacademyna.org.

9 Information for Overseas Students

Overseas students are advised that personal information provided to YANA may be made available to federal, state and local agencies, pursuant to legal obligations.

9.1 Overseas Student Health Coverage

If you're an international student studying in the USA, it is recommended that you obtain health insurance as a traveler to the USA. Health care is not universal in the USA and it can be expensive.

9.2 English Language Proficiency

If your prior education has not been in English, please contact us to determine whether your level of English language proficiency is adequate.

9.3 Visas

Before arriving in the United States of America, you may need to apply for a Visa. Information about United States Visas to help you determine which Visa is most appropriate for you is available from the US Department of State and/or the US Department of Homeland Security. Please go to <https://travel.state.gov/content/visas/en.html>.

10 What If I Can't Finish My Course?

10.1 Deferral

If you are unable to complete a course due to unforeseen circumstances, you may request to DEFER your studies to a later time. This option is available up to two times for a single course.

To defer studies, you must formally apply to YANA in writing. Written requests to defer may be sent via email, fax, mail or hand-delivery. Requests must be accompanied by a nonrefundable deferral fee of 10% (first time) or 20% (second time) of the Standard (non-discounted) Course Fee. All course fees must be paid in full before applying for a deferral.

When you are granted a deferral, you may join a future course within 24 months of the deferral date at the point from which you interrupted your studies. The structure and assessment items for any course may be altered during the period of your deferral. YANA reserves the right to require compliance with the updated course

Rejoining a Course after Deferral

To rejoin a course after deferral, a new application form must be submitted at least one month prior to the start date of the course. You will be required to pay any increase in the Standard Course Fees and may be required to purchase a current resource folder.

10.2 Extension to Access

If you are unable to complete the required homework/assessment tasks before the course completion date, and do not wish to defer, you may apply for an EXTENSION TO ACCESS the course for a monthly fee of $50.

10.3 Voluntary Withdrawal from a Course

If you are unable to complete a course due to unforeseen circumstances, you may withdraw from the course. To formally withdraw, you must apply to YANA in writing via fax, email, mail or hand-delivery.

Once withdrawn from the course, you may request a statement of attainment of all completed units and subjects.

If you decide to re-enroll in a course, you will be required to pay the full course fee. Credit for previously completed units and subjects will be discussed on an individual basis.

10.4 Automatic Withdrawal from a Course

YANA will automatically withdraw a student from a course in the following circumstances:

- Failure by a student to pay outstanding fees on their account within stated timeframes;
- Failure by a student to recommence their studies within the stated timeframe;
- Failure by a student to submit home study in accordance with the module's established deadlines;
- Failure by a student to respond to requests for communication from YANA staff.

A student who has been automatically withdrawn from a course will be notified in writing. A student who has been automatically withdrawn from a course forfeits all fees paid.

11 Refund Policy

11.1 Course Cancellation

If YANA cancels a course, we will refund you the full amount of what you have paid in course and housing fees within one month of the cancellation date. The method of refund will be the same as the method of the original payment. No reimbursement will be given for any travel costs (airfare, train tickets, etc.).

11.2 Refunds

The following guidelines apply where a student voluntarily withdraws from a course. To request a refund, please provide the following information in writing to YANA:

- Name and Date of Course
- Date of the withdrawal
- Reason for the withdrawal
- Payments already made
- Refund recipient details (i.e. mailing address and telephone number)

If a student's date of withdrawal is:

- before the course start date, all monies will be refunded less the nonrefundable deposit.
- after the course start date, no refunds will be given.

11.3 Refunds for the Residential Facility

Requests for a Kurukshetra accommodation refund must be submitted to YANA via phone, fax, or email (info@yogaacademy.org) by the dates indicated below:

- cancellation more than 7 days before the course start date: full refund minus 1 night's booked accommodation fee.
- cancellation 7 days or less before the course start date: no refunds will be given.

12 Yogic Lifestyle

The experience of living a yogic lifestyle is an essential component of this course and is based on traditional principles adapted to modern times. Please contemplate the following requirements of a yogic lifestyle:

12.1 Silence (Mouna)

Observing mouna (silence) provides conditions conducive for self-reflection and observation, as well as for study, meditation or simply rest. Mouna is practiced daily for periods of time. In the residential facility, mouna is from 8pm through breakfast. Mouna is expected in certain areas and rooms at all times.

12.2 Respect for Sadhana Halls

The sadhana halls are areas set aside for yoga practice. Please feel free to use the space outside of program times for your own practice, meditation or contemplation. However, to maintain an atmosphere that is conducive to practice, please maintain mouna in the sadhana halls.

12.3 Dress During the Course

Students are requested to dress modestly and to show respect for the fact that they are learning within a special environment by limiting the use of jewelry, make up, aftershaves and perfumes or colognes.

If you have taken sannyasa or received mantra diksha, it is suggested that you wear the color appropriate to your level of initiation during the course. The color white can be worn by all students, as it represents a new beginning.

13 Academic Life

13.1 Induction

The residential learning period for each course begins with an induction which introduces you to the staff and facilities and to the daily program of yogic practices and lifestyle. You will receive the course timetable showing class locations, times and topics. You will also receive a resource folder containing detailed information on the course, handouts and assessment requirements.

13.2 Teaching Staff

All teachers have qualifications in SATYANANDA YOGA[®] teaching and extensive experience in yoga. In addition, many have professional qualifications or specialist degrees in their subject areas. See the staff list at the end of this Handbook.

13.3 Assessment Methods

Specific course assessment information will be provided during the student induction process at the outset of a course. You will be given feedback on your performance.

13.4 Appeals, Complaints and Grievance Procedures

A formal complaint process can be activated by contacting your Course Coordinator. There is a provision for appeal to an independent panel or person who shall not have had involvement with the complaint. The person or panel may draw on independent outside expertise as required. The decision made will be binding on all parties. The procedure provides for each complaint, appeal or grievance to be resolved promptly and for its outcome to be recorded in writing.

14 Rights and Responsibilities

14.1 Respect

The Academy is committed to a wide range of policies designed to provide a safe, supportive learning environment.

You have a responsibility to treat all others with respect and dignity and not to behave in a way that could be seen as threatening, offensive or embarrassing to others. Behavior that discriminates, harasses or vilifies others on the basis of age, disability, gender, sexual orientation or race is not tolerated and will be subject to action. You are expected to comply with reasonable directions from teachers and other course staff and with the guidelines of the courses.

14.2 Personal Relationships between Staff and Students

The Academy's Personal Relationships Policy aims to prevent any conflict of interest or abuse of power and strongly advises against relationships between staff and students. The policy seeks to manage any actual or potential negative outcomes. It relies on the honesty of both staff and students to self-disclose existence of personal relationships.

Personal relationships between students and staff may involve serious difficulties arising from the unequal power of the parties concerned, as well as difficulties in maintaining the appropriate boundaries between professional and personal life.

14.3 Health and Safety

Students need to take appropriate measures to ensure their safety and that of others. Students need to wear protective clothing if required, to obey all safety signs and to follow all reasonable procedures. Students should also ensure that fellow workers or others are not put at risk by their actions.

Students must report any hazards or unsafe practices to the work supervisor or YANA staff. All accidents, injuries or "near misses" should be reported.

14.4 Smoking, Drugs and Alcohol

You are strongly encouraged to refrain from smoking during your stay, but if you need to smoke, you must go off the property. Alcohol and the use of illegal drugs are prohibited at the Atma Center and at the Residential Facility. Violation of this policy will result in all participation in the course being terminated with no refund. The appropriate law enforcement officials may also be notified.

All material provided to students throughout their study remains the copyright of YANA and may not be reproduced or distributed in any way without the express written permission of YANA. Much of the material used in course notes and handouts is derived from Bihar School of Yoga publications published by Yoga Publications Trust. This material is used with permission of the publishers and this permission does not extend to use by students other than the standard provision for fair dealing usage for research or study.

14.5 Trademarks

It is important that the authenticity and traditional teachings of yoga, sannyasa and spiritual life as taught by Paramahansa Satyananda Saraswati and his lineage are maintained. You are not permitted to use the trademarks without receiving written approval from IYFM (International Yoga Fellowship Movement).

SATYANANDA YOGA® Accredited Teachers and centers may be authorized through an Accreditation Agreement to use the trademarked terms “SATYANANDA YOGA®” and Satyananda Yoga Nidra® on a restricted basis. Other terms may also be trademarked; if you have any questions, please consult one of the YANA staff.

14.6 Photographs and Recordings

YANA or the Atma Center may at any time audio record, photograph and/or video record any of the activities at the Academy, at the Residential Facility, or at the Atma Center. The Atma Center and YANA reserve the right to use any such recording or photograph in its publications, advertising and displays without obtaining further consent from any course participant. In completing the application form you release YANA and the Atma Center from any liability in connection with any such use of recordings, photographs and/or videotapes.

14.7 Computers

There are no computers or telephones available for student use at the Atma Center or in the Residential Facility. The Library and several nearby businesses provide computers and free wireless internet. If you are staying at the Residential Facility, you may request Wi-Fi access.

14.8 Attendance

Attendance rolls are kept for all course activities. You are asked to be in attendance five minutes prior to the start of a session. You need to attend 100% of all required sessions, including webinars, to complete the subject requirements unless approval to miss a class has been provided by your Course Coordinator.

14.9 Disciplinary Procedures

Failure to comply with YANA policies and educational or behavioral requirements may result in disciplinary actions. These may include a warning, reprimand, request for apology, counseling or suspension from the course. Serious or repeated breaches of conduct may result in termination of enrollment with no refunds.

14.10 Privacy Statement

Protecting your privacy and personal information is important to us. “Personal” information is information about you of a private nature that is not public knowledge, including your name, address, date of birth, telephone contacts and employment or family details. Such information will be stored securely, accessed only by Academy staff with a legitimate need, and disclosed to third parties only in accordance with the purpose for which it was collected, to comply with any law.

“Sensitive personal” information is personal information relating to your racial or ethnic origins, financial status, economic or geographical disadvantage. This is collected by the Academy to enable us to ensure we are meeting our commitments to equity and access in our provision of services. This information will be extracted from enrollment information without identifying details.

“Health” information is information about your physical or mental health, current or past medical or psychological conditions, or disabilities. The Academy collects this information to enable individual needs, disabilities or special requirements to be met in teaching, supplies, or facilities. This information will be stored confidentially with access restricted to specified Academy personnel and will only be disclosed to a third party with your written consent.

15 Logistics

15.1 Course Location

Yoga Academy of North America (YANA) courses conducted at our location in Cleveland, Ohio are held within the Atma Center, 2319 Lee Road, Cleveland Heights, Ohio 44118 and our Residential Facility, Kurukshetra, nearby. Free parking is available in the lot behind the Atma Center building. The phone number for the Atma Center is (216) 371-9760. The phone is answered during normal business hours and this number may be given out for family and friends to use for emergency purposes only. The business phone will not be available for personal calls. Cell phones and pagers are not permitted inside the studios.

From Cleveland-Hopkins International Airport to Atma Center: Public transportation is available from the airport via the Red Line Rapid (66) to the Superior Station, transferring to the 40 bus line south to 2319 Lee Road (a few blocks past the Cedar-Lee intersection, across from the Shell Station and just before the Main Library, which has a stylish bridge over Lee Road). Another option is to take the Red Line to the University Circle Station, take the 32 up Cedar Road to Lee Road and walk the four blocks to the Center. The best option will depend on the day and time of day you wish to travel. More information is available at www.riderta.com.

Please note that public transportation in Cleveland is not as regular, reliable, or safe as in many other major cities. If you plan to arrive after dark, travel to the Superior Rapid Station is not recommended; plan to have someone meet you at a different rapid station or find another method from the airport, such as a taxi. If you are uncertain about the safety of a particular route, please inquire. Information on taxis and other methods of transportation from the airport are available on the airport's website at <http://www.clevelandairport.com>. Allow about a half hour drive time (in a car/taxi) from the airport; public transportation will take at least twice as long.

Please note that YANA does not provide transportation.

15.2 Arrival at the Course Location

Students are encouraged to arrive no later than 15 minutes prior to the Course Induction. This allows time to settle in so we can begin promptly.

15.3 What Do I Bring for the Course?

- Yoga mat, blanket, props
- Lecture pad, pens, pencils, etc.
- Books and supplies indicated for the residential; refer to the course list above (sections 3.2 and 4.2).

16 Residential Facility for Cleveland, Ohio Courses

The Residential Facility for Cleveland, Ohio courses is located 0.7 miles from the YANA training space at the Atma Center and is accessible by major public transportation lines, especially the 32 bus route. There are several bedrooms which are shared. A private bedroom may be available for either a single person or a couple/family. All residents have access to shared bathrooms and a full kitchen. There is also a meditation room, sadhana hall, and recreational space.

There are no televisions or telephone service onsite. Any personal devices you bring, including mp3 players, tablets, computers, etc., may only be used with headphones, not with external speakers. In addition, laundry facilities are not available at the Residential Facility; however, you may hand wash small items in the laundry sink.

An onsite Property Manager will be present during your stay. There may also be longer term residents or students from other programs sharing accommodations. To ensure the safety of all residents, you are not permitted to bring any guests on the property during the courses without prior approval of the Property Manager and Course Coordinator.

The Facility has two parking spaces available for small or standard cars/minivans. If you are planning to bring an automobile to the Facility, please notify us of the make and model of your vehicle when making your housing reservation so we can let you know if you will be able to park onsite. Please do not assume you have a place to park unless you have received written confirmation.

16.1 What Do I Bring If I am Staying at the Residential Facility?

Please bring the following items for your stay at the Residential Facility:

- Bedding: we can provide you with a bedding packet, including sheets, blankets, pillow, and a towel. If there is any other bedding or linen you will need, or if you prefer to use your own linens, please bring them along. Laundering of linens during the stay is not provided
- Clothing suitable for yoga practices and for indoor and outdoor work activities
- Protection from the sun, rain, heat and cold, as appropriate to the time of year
- Toiletries
- Flashlight, alarm clock, ear plugs (housemates may snore!)
- Basic first aid supplies; any prescribed medication.

16.2 Where is the Residential Facility?

The address is 12964 Cedar Road.

From the University Circle Rapid, take Cedar Road (bus line: 32) east past Coventry. The facility is between the cross streets of Westminster (this is the closest bus stop) and Maplewood, on the right side of the road.

Please note there is a preferred time period for your arrival at the facility. You will be notified of this timeframe. If you are planning to arrive earlier or later than that timeframe, notify us immediately.

16.3 Public Transportation

The Residential facility is easily accessible via public transportation. The 32 runs up and down Cedar and receives transfers from several major lines, including the 66 Red Line Rapid (University Circle) and the #40 bus (Lee Road). A complete set of schedules is available online at www.riderta.com.

Please note that YANA does not provide transportation to and from the Residential Facility.
