

Acts 3-4 – Peter and John Heal a Lame Man

1. Skim through Acts 3:1-4:31. Cross out any events which did not happen, and number the rest in their proper order.

- Peter spoke to the people in Solomon's Portico.
- The temple officials were annoyed by "the resurrection of the dead."
- Peter told the people that through faith in Jesus the man was healed.
- Peter and John spotted a lame man begging at Gate Beautiful.
- The officials held a closed-door meeting to decide what to do.
- Peter stared at the man and told him to look back.
- The friends of Peter and John were filled with the Holy Spirit.
- Peter and John agreed to stop preaching about Jesus and the resurrection.
- Peter grabbed the man by his hand and told him to stand up and walk.
- The officials thought Peter and John were weak and cowardly.
- The officials warned Peter and John not to preach any more.
- The lame man jumped up, ran into the temple, and jumped around in there.
- The temple officials interrogated Peter and John.
- The people in the temple were amazed when they saw the man jumping.
- Peter told the people that he alone had the power to heal the man.
- John gave the lame man a small sack of silver coins.
- Peter said that all the ancient prophets had anticipated a day like this.
- The temple officials were delighted that the man was healed.
- Peter and John went to the temple one afternoon to pray.
- Peter and John told the officials the man was healed by the name of Jesus.
- The lame man stood up and fell over.
- Peter and John were arrested and spent the night in jail.
- The officials punished Peter and John with a beating and a hefty fine.
- Peter and John's friends rejoiced and gave thanks in prayer.

2. In your Bible underline or highlight these four verses:

Acts 3:14-15 — Acts 3:26 — Acts 4:12 — Acts 4:19-20

Circle your favorite, and copy it here:

3. In your Bible underline or highlight Acts 4:29-30, beginning with "We are your servants . . ." Then rewrite this prayer to make it sound like your own prayer. Begin like this:

Lord, I am your servant . . .