

Luke 20-21 - Jesus' Teachings in the Temple

1. During the last week of his life Jesus spent much of his time in the temple. He argued with his opponents, taught the people, and encouraged his disciples. Number these teachings of Jesus in order according to Luke 20:1-21:38.

- _____ Everyone will hate you because of me.
- _____ Be on your guard against the teachers of the law...who take advantage of widows....then make long prayers.
- _____ Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away.
- _____ Neither will I tell you, then, by what right I do these things.
- _____ He is the God of the living, not of the dead, for to him all are alive.
- _____ This poor widow put in more than all the others.
- _____ The Son of Man will appear, coming in a cloud with great power and glory.
- _____ Pay to the Emperor what belongs to the Emperor, and pay to God what belongs to God.
- _____ Don't be afraid when you hear of wars and revolutions.
- _____ Terrible distress will come upon this land.
- _____ Everyone who falls on that stone will be cut to pieces.
- _____ Be on watch and pray always that you will have the strength to go safely through.
- _____ The time will come when not a single stone here will be left in its place; every one will be thrown down.
- _____ How can it be said that the Messiah will be the descendant of King David?

2. Pick the three of these sayings which are your favorite, circle them in your Bible, and list their references here:

3. Now circle one of these and explain in the space below what Jesus meant when he said it. (You may have to read the entire paragraph in which your verse is found.)
