Judges 3-11 - Four Interesting Judges

1.

FOUR JUDGES	3:12-29	4:1-24	6:1-7:25	11:1-33
Hero or Heroine	Ehud	Deborah (& Barak)	Gideon	Jephthah
Villain(s)	King Eglon of Moab	King Jaban of Canaan & his general Sisera	X	The king of the Ammonites
Problem	Captured the city	Sisera's 900 iron	The Midianites	the Ammonites

	of palms, ruled Israel for 18 years	chariots subdue Israel for 20 years	kept stealing the Israelites' grain crops	made war against Israel.
Solution	Ehud killed Eglon & the Israelites killed 10,000 Moabites.	Barak's 10,000 men defeated Sisera's cavalry	With only 300 men, Gideon routed the enemy army	Jephthah led the Gideonites and defeated the Ammonites
Most memorable detail or development	Ehud was left-handed. When he took the tribute to Eglon he also had a short two-edged sword. When he greeted Eglon with his right hand, he stabbed him in his fat belly with his left hand, and the king's poop came out!	Sisera fled to the tent of a woman named Jael. While he took a nap, she took a tent peg and pounded it into his skull!	An angel of the Lord met Gideon & burned up his meal. A fleece of wool was first wet, then dry, as a sign for him. Only the 300 men who lapped water like dogs were allowed to go with Gideon.	Jephthah was the bastard son of a prostitute. First the Gibeonites rejected him, then they begged him to lead their army.

3rd John - Problems in the Church

A certain church leader, called A, was having trouble. He would send out a group of traveling missionaries, called C, to make the rounds and preach from one church to another. But in one of those churches was a scoundrel, named D, who wouldn't cooperate. Whenever C came to his church, D would refuse to let them come in. If anyone else in that church tried to help the missionaries, D would kick them out. To make matters worse, D was even saying bad thing about A. So to try to straighten things out, A wrote a letter to B. He knew that B was a good man, someone who always helped C when they came to visit. In fact C had told A about the warm welcome C had given them. The Elder wanted B to welcome another traveler, named E when he came. In fact, E was probably carrying this letter with him when he got to B's house. A wanted B to imitate good men like E, not to cooperate with evil men like D. That way God's truth would be followed and everyone would be joyful and happy.
