

Nate's Record Resale

Cataloging & Appraisal Service Form

Nate's Record Resale is now providing cataloging and appraisal services for your record collections. If you have a pile of valuable records that need identification, expert grading, and appraisal, Nate's Record Resale will do the job for only $0.50 per record! This gets you full access to your collection through the Discogs digital database along with customizable and easily manageable folders, constantly updated appraisal estimates using the Discogs collection appraisal service, printable excel spreadsheets for offline use, and access to your collection from your PC or smart phone. No more buying double/triples of that one album you keep forgetting you had and no more wondering if that imported Beatles - White Album you have will set you on the path towards early retirement. Vacuum cleaning service and fresh record sleeves available upon request at additional cost. Contact us today for all your service inquiries!

Features include:

- Professional visual grading of all records on an individual basis using Goldmine record grading standards. Nate's Record Resale has a 99.9% satisfaction rating when it comes to quality of service!
- Fully typed album descriptions in your collections reference notes.
- Constantly updated appraisal service using the Discogs market database -- watch your collection's value fluctuate with the markets!
- Full access to your collection from any computer with or without an internet connection using exportable and printable excel worksheets.
- Access your collection anywhere, anytime, using the Discogs mobile app.
- Sick of that one album? Have doubles? Sell it on the Discogs marketplace! Full access to Discogs seller services should your heart desire.
- Digital collection sortable by artist, album title, label, catalog number, format, year, or rating.
- Compare and contrast with millions of albums in the Discogs database, one of the largest on the web.
- Create, customize, and sort your collections with easily manageable digital folders.
- Record Doctor V vacuum cleaning service and fresh record sleeves available upon request for an additional cost.
- One-time expert estimate of collection's retail value upon completion of service.
