

Nadine Trudel, Cello

Nadine is currently Principal cellist of the Sarasota Opera and member of the cello section of the Sarasota Orchestra. Before moving to Florida to join the Florida Philharmonic, Nadine Trudel held a position in the Boston Ballet Orchestra and performed with several New England ensembles as well as the Pittsburgh Symphony.

A native of Montréal, Québec, Nadine attended the Conservatoire de Musique de Montréal. She earned her Master of Music degree at the University of Southern California. Nadine and her husband Gil Katz have a performing cello/Bass duo called Nona.

Nadine has been on faculty at the Conservatory since 2008 and currently accepts students of all ages and levels.