

Giuseppina Ciarla, Harp

Italian born Giuseppina Ciarla is principal harpist with the Sarasota Opera Orchestra. She holds a Conservatory diploma from her native Italy along with a Bachelor's and a Master's degree – with honors, in harp performance from the USA. She is multilingual, an accomplished solo, chamber and orchestral musician and maintains a harp studio in Sarasota where she's dedicated to sharing her years of experience and knowledge.

Giuseppina will inspire, nurture and guide you in the wonderful and exciting journey of learning to play the harp. Expression, musicality and a strong technical foundation are the core of Giuseppina's teaching philosophy, while encouraging each student to bring out the best of themselves through their own creativity.

Giuseppina offers traditional and Suzuki method harp lessons. She has completed Suzuki teacher training with the world renown Mary Kay Waddington.

Giuseppina is joining the Conservatory's faculty this Fall and currently accepts students of ages and levels.
