

Counseling & Life Coaching

EMPOWER LIFE COACHING AND COUNSELING CENTERS (ELCC), A NON-PROFIT ORGANIZATION LOCATED IN DOWNTOWN QUAKERTOWN, SERVES FAMILIES, GROUPS, AND INDIVIDUALS.

Comprised of three, the team has nearly a century of combined experience. Founder and co-Director, Palma Moyer, R.N. specializes in dual diagnosis (clients with both mental health and drug addiction issues) and holistic nursing. Director Jon Moyer, LPC, said her caring and warmth come through in her counseling because, "You know she's doing it from a place of compassion, not out of judgment or authority. Clients appreciate that she's practical and down-to-earth."

"With our client-centered approach, we look at the needs of the individual and attempt to tailor services to that person, rather than trying to fit them into our program." ~ Jon

Jon holds a master's degree as a licensed professional counselor, and is a life coach and licensed insurance agent.

"Jerry is excellent in his way of listening to and integrating clients' stories into therapy." ~ Jon

Jerry received his Master's Degree in counseling psychology from Villanova University, is currently an adjunct professor at Northampton County Community College, and teaches memoir writing. Among his many talents, he has a passion for helping people "tell their story" and is the author of several self-help writing books.

"Jon and Palma have extensive experience helping people in all walks of life. I am so impressed by their generous, caring attitude toward everyone who enters the office." ~ Jerry

DIRECTOR
Jon Moyer
LPC

"Giving hope is the key to what we do." ~ Jon

They use a variety of counseling methods. Solution Focused therapy helps people in short-term crisis. Drug and alcohol counseling applies to those with addictions and Family Counseling helps parents and teens. While clinical counseling can provide insights into client's past issues, life coaching focuses on the present with an eye to the future. "I love the positivity and encouragement that we can provide with life coaching." ~ Jon

"The three of us have a heart and a passion to help all people, especially those with low income, to grow and improve their lives." ~ Palma
