

WALK AT WENDOVER – 19 MAY 2013

Wendover Woods is an area of woodland on the north edge of the Chiltern Hills in England. Named after the nearby town of Wendover, the woods are owned by the Forestry Commission.

Hello – can I come for a walk too?

Covering 800 acres, the woods are a mixture of coniferous and broadleaved trees.

There are several signed walks for recreation, as well as bridleways, picnic and barbecue areas and a children's playground. A treetop adventure course opened in 2008.

There are views of the countryside in the Aylesbury Vale to the north, and a stone monument marking the highest point of the Chilterns which lies within the woods on Haddington Hill.
