2017/18 Academic Year First-Year Representative Nomination Form

Per Section 4.4.13.1 of the Psychology and Neuroscience Departmental Association (PNDA) constitution, eligible candidates must be a first-year student at University of Toronto that has intentions of enrolling into a Psychology, Neuroscience, or Mental Health Studies program.

Please complete this nomination form and submit it in a sealed envelope to the PNDA office NO LATER than 5:00PM on Friday September 29th. The office can be found in Portable 103, room 112. If nobody is in the office, please slip the form under the door. If you have any questions about the responsibilities of the positions, please email us at president.pnda@gmail.com, send us a Facebook message, or check out our constitution, which is available on www.thepnda.org under the "About Us" tab!

Eligible candidates will be contacted to attend an election at a date and time to be announced. As a candidate, you will be expected to make a two to five (2-5) minute speech about why you should be selected for the first-year representative position. A brief question period will follow. Please note that, according to the PNDA Constitution, a first-year student that is not yet enrolled in a program may attend the election to vote, however, students in second-year and above must be enrolled within a Psychology, Neuroscience, or Mental Health Studies program (specialist, major or minor).

In order to be eligible to vote, all potential voters must be present for the entirety of the speeches. Once speeches begin, the doors will be closed. If you are interested in running for this position, please complete the form below and collect ten (10) signatures from student nominators. This nomination does NOT count as a vote, so please convince them to come out to the elections and vote for you as a candidate.
