Student Leaders Honored at Luncheon

Robert McMillan

The Buffalo Area Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring the annual leadership luncheon for Buffalo High School students at 1 p.m. Wednesday, May 3, at the high school cafeteria. Robert McMillan from the Carrie J. Babb Cancer Center at Citizens Memorial Hospital in Bolivar will be the guest speaker. McMillan will bring Kendrick Payne, the Southwest Baptist University social work intern. Payne is also the team captain of the SBU football team. He also will speak about leadership at the luncheon. McMillan is from Dallas County and has been a CMH employee for many years holding leadership roles. He is active in his church and community. Cost is $10 per person. Area businesses will sponsor each student and his or her meal. Parents are invited to join their students. Students being honored and the organization that nominated the student include the following: Art Club, Lauren Maddux and Trinity Kates; band, Dani Jenks and Charles Hurst; FBLA, Laci Banks and Megan Swanigan; FCA, Allison Mankey and Delaney Miller;

FCCLA, Kristina Todd and Katie Reed; FFA, Katelin Truster and Ranae Poole; FTA, Taylor Holman and Tyler Crane; Library Club, Logan Wolfe and Makenzee Harris; choir, Natalie Gilpin and Noah Phillips; NHS, Emily Gilpin and Colby Kramer; SkillsUSA, Isabell Waltman and Josh Hesse; speech, Sabrina Allison and Zach Vajda; Spanish Club, Colten Kenady and Bryan Valencia; Student Council, Skylar Wimberly and Emilee Todd; theater, Sara Kull and John Zoeller; yearbook, Kayla Mason and Brooke Stoneman; Interact, Britney Flores and Alyssa Anthony; and scholar bowl, Charlie Crane and Philip Canole.
