Core Seminars—How to Grow Class 8: Evangelism

I. Introduction

The link between worship and evangelism (John 4:23)

- Revelation 4:10-11
- Revelation 5:6-14

II. Evangelism is inseparable from the life of a believer

A. Evangelism is a matter of obedience (Matt 28:19-20)

B. Evangelism is a matter of Gratitude (Ps 115:12-14)

C. Evangelism is a matter of godliness (Prov 11:30)

D. Evangelism is every Christian’s calling (1 Pet 2:9)

III. Evangelism is Empowered

How can we overcome our fear of evangelism?

A. God's Sovereignty (Acts 18:9-11)

B. The power of the Holy Spirit (Acts 1:8; 2 Cor 3:5; 4:7)

C. The power of the gospel to save (Rom 1:16-17)

IV. Evangelism is a discipline

- Ephesians 6:4
- Colossians 4:3-6 (Pray, Watch your life, Pursue opportunities, Be careful with your words)

V. More Application

Questions for reflection:

1. Since we evangelize because we have been evangelized, will we obey the Lord and witness?
2. Since evangelism is empowered, will we believe God can use our words in saving others?
3. Since evangelism is a discipline, will we plan for it? Will we commit ourselves to at least one way of intentional evangelism in the near future?

“I count nothing to be worthy of your pastor's life, and soul, and energy, but the winning of you to Christ. Nothing but your salvation can ever make me feel that my heart's desire is granted. I ask every worker here to see to this, that he never turns aside from shooting at this target, and at the center of this target, too, namely that he may win souls for Christ, and see them born to God, and washed in the fountain filled with blood.

Let the workers' hearts ache, and yearn, and their voices cry till their throats are hoarse; but let them judge that they have accomplished nothing whatever until, at least, in some cases, men are really saved. As the fisherman longs to take the fish in his net, as the hunter pants to bear home his spoil, as the mother pines to clasp her lost child to her bosom, so do we faint for the salvation of souls; and we must have them, or we are ready to die. Save them, O Lord, save them for Christ's sake!” - C.H. Spurgeon
