

Community Spotlight: Greater Westhampton Area

On the East End of Long Island, the Greater Westhampton Community is composed of several incorporated villages and hamlets in the western portion of the Town of Southampton – “The Hamptons.” Here you will find the Incorporated Villages of Westhampton Beach, Quogue and West Hampton Dunes, mixed with the hamlets of Remsenburg-Speonk, Eastport, Westhampton and Quogue. Each offers a unique blend of history, beauty and character that makes these communities special and stand out as the “First Hampton.”

Westhampton Beach is the ultimate seaside community. Amidst its many charms is its beachfront location along miles of ocean and picturesque shores. From Rogers Beach to the village green, the Greater Westhampton community is a fabulous retreat with exclusive boutiques, a thriving business community and a keen focus on the creative arts. Antique shows, arts and crafts street fairs, and live music enhance the inviting atmosphere of Westhampton Beach. The Westhampton Beach Performing Arts Center is a local venue hosting world-renowned artists of various genres year round.

The Westhampton Beach Country Club and Hampton Hills Golf Club offer golfing and social events, and numerous beach clubs line the Atlantic Ocean including The Swordfish Club, La Ronde, Quantuck Beach Club and Bath and Tennis Club. Cupsogue Beach, Pikes Beach,

Quantuck Beach and Lashley Beach provide various amenities along the beautiful surf and sand. The neighboring Village of Quogue features a unique taste of old world charm with grand homes and beautiful beaches - including the highly coveted Quogue Village Beach and Surf Club - as well as other private clubs for recreational enjoyment. The Quogue Theater also houses superb performances throughout the year.
