

Tim Green

Musician, Educator, Activist, Executive

"What a wonderful man. It's my honest belief that WRBH would not be in existence without Tim Green."

Natalia Gonzalez, Executive Director,
WRBH in New Orleans,
radio for the blind
and print-handicapped

"Finally Tim is getting what should be coming to him. It didn't matter what kind of music you were playing, Tim made it better."
Johnny Vidacovich

"One of the sweetest, giving, over-the-top talents. Tim was so dedicated, he would have tried to walk to the moon."
Kirk Joseph

"I thoroughly enjoyed playing with Tim, not only because he was a legendary part of the New Orleans music scene, but he was also a kind, thoughtful and very musical soul."
Peter Gabriel

Proclamation declared by the New Orleans City Council. requested by Ms. Nadine Ramsey, representing District C : August 24, 2017
is again
Tim Green Day
in New Orleans

'He is interested in so much music and has brought himself to a place where he can insert very creative ideas in almost any context ...'
Jonathan Freilich

"For Tim, it was always about the music and more than the music. Everyone who played with him talked about how spiritual the experience was. His playing was transcendent."
Helen Gillet

"Tim Green thought of life without being able to play his horn as being buried alive.... Thank you, Tim Green, for giving us so much as an artist and a friend.'
