

Dress Code

Although the LCCC does not appear very large, lots of walking is required and we strongly recommend comfortable shoes. Girls State is held in early June, which can mean anything in terms of weather. You know Wyoming. So be prepared for both hot or cold and anything in between. Rain gear and an umbrella are advised.

There are certain days when dresses will be required. These days are: Picture Day; Capitol Day; Inauguration/Banquet and whichever day the state elected officials visit.

As a Delegate of Girls State, I agree to the following dress code:

1. It is strongly recommended dresses or skirts be worn as the Staff feels it portrays a professional image, although business pantsuits, dressy capri outfits or dress slacks may be worn.
2. Dress or skirt hem lines will be NO SHORTER THAN 3" FROM THE CENTER OF THE KNEE. Questionable hem lines will be evaluated on a case by case basis and delegate may be asked to change into more appropriate attire.
3. No denim jeans (any color), baggy/cargo style pants, warm-up or sweatpants, or hip hugger pants/skirts that show the navel will be allowed (see #5).
4. No dresses or blouses that leave the shoulders or back bare, i.e. with spaghetti straps, are allowed unless a shirt or blouse with sleeves is worn as well.
5. Casual clothes such as sweats, jeans, shorts, etc., may be worn during recreation periods, during the evening City Meetings, after the close of the day's session, and during such other times as designated by the Director. Pajamas are not allowed to be worn at daily Flag Raising ceremonies.
6. Prom or evening dinner dresses should be worn for the Inauguration. If your dress meets with your parents/guardians' approval, then it is acceptable for Inauguration, i.e. may be strapless, backless, etc.
7. Tee shirts with offensive messages or language are strictly prohibited.
8. Girls State Delegate name tags are to be worn at all times except for Inauguration.

If there are questions regarding the dress code, they should be addressed to the Director or the Senior Staff. If there are infractions of the dress code, Delegates may be asked to return to their rooms to put on more appropriate attire. Infractions could be counted against a City in vying for the Outstanding City Award.

Continual infractions during the week of Girls State could result in the Delegate being required to return home.

By signing and returning the Girls State Pledge, I have agreed to the aforementioned dress code. Keep this for reference in preparation for Girls State.

NOTE: All Staff members have been asked to abide by the same Dress Code as the Delegates.
