

Green Mountain Railroad Rules of the Rails

By purchasing tickets to the Green Mountain Railroad, each ticket holder agrees to comply with the following conditions:

- Passengers are not allowed on coach steps or vestibules while the train is in motion.
- Passengers agree to board and detrain only at attended vestibule doors and will not attempt to board or alight from a train while it is in motion.
- Passengers agree to keep their head, arms, and all other body parts inside the windows at all times.
- Passengers will not climb on locomotives, railroad tracks, and all railroad equipment except for passenger cars in the train unless accompanied by an authorized representative of the railroad.
- Passengers will not pass from car to car except as necessary.
- Passengers understand that children must be supervised at all times and must be accompanied by an adult when passing through the train.
- Passengers will not smoke in the buildings or on the trains of this railroads property.
- Passengers agree to deposit all trash in the proper receptacles found on the trains and around stations.
- Passengers agree not to bring outside alcoholic beverages onto this railroads property.
- Passengers agree that this railroad shall not be held responsible for delays, submission, or cancellation of its trains.
- Passengers understand that their ticket is void of passage if any alterations or erasures are made on the ticket or if the bottom coupon is detached from the ticket.
- Passengers acknowledge this railroads right to refuse passage to, or remove any passenger who appears intoxicated or whose behavior becomes unsafe or objectionable to fellow passengers or railroad representatives at any time.
- Passengers acknowledge that tickets are only valid for passage on the date specified.
- Passengers agree to follow the boarding and seating instructions given by any railroad representative, and understand that late arrivals may result in separated seating or missing the train.
- Passengers understand that non-service animals are not permitted on the property.
- Passengers agree to have read, and will comply with this railroads Group Policy, Cancellation Policy and Photography Policy.
- Passengers understand this railroads right to change motive power, equipment, schedule, menu, and admission price without notice.
- Passengers understand that failure to comply with the Green Mountain Railroad Rules of the Rails will result in one verbal warning and if necessary the refusal of passage or removal from the property.