

Green Mountain Railroad Rules of the Rails

By purchasing tickets to the Green Mountain Railroad, each ticket holder agrees to comply with the following conditions. Failure to comply with these conditions may result in the refusal of passage or removal from the property.

- Passengers are not allowed on coach steps or vestibules while the train is in motion.
- Passengers shall not board and detrain only at attended vestibule doors and will not attempt to board or alight from a train while it is in motion.
- Passengers agree to keep their head, arms, and all other body parts inside the train at all times.
- Passengers will not climb on locomotives, railroad tracks, and all railroad equipment except for passenger cars in the train unless accompanied by an authorized representative of the railroad.
- Passengers understand that children must be supervised at all times and must be accompanied by an adult when passing through the train.
- Passengers will not smoke in the buildings or on the trains.
- Passengers will help maintain a clean and safe environment by depositing all trash in the proper receptacles found on the trains and around stations.
- Passengers agree not to bring outside alcoholic beverages onto this railroads property.
- Passengers agree that this railroad shall not be held responsible for delays, submission, or cancellation of its trains.
- Passengers understand that their ticket is void of passage if any alterations or erasures are made on the ticket or if the bottom coupon is detached from the ticket.
- Passengers acknowledge we may refuse passage to, or remove any passenger who appears intoxicated or whose behavior becomes unsafe or objectionable to fellow passengers or railroad representatives at any time.
- Passengers agree to follow the boarding and seating instructions given by any railroad representative, and understand that late arrivals may result in separated seating or missing the train.
- Passengers understand that non-service animals are not permitted on the property.
- Passengers agree to have read, and will comply with this railroads Group Policy, Cancellation Policy and Photography Policy.
- Passengers understand that the Green Mountain Railroad may change motive power, equipment, schedule, and menu without advance notice.
