

(Inc. Transitional Arrangement)

The Professional Yachting Association can assess experienced and current Interior Yacht Crew for direct entry to the GUEST© program.

This Letter of Assessment route is relevant to anyone who has had any formal training or experience in hospitality and as a yacht interior crew member, has received onboard mentoring or had experience of training others or has already invested in formal yacht interior training courses.

The PYA will make an assessment based on the correct documentation being presented on application. The letter of assessment will indicate which (if any) Certificate of Competency will be issued and where current experience and training would fit into the program.

All Applicants	Hospitality Training / non yacht	Yacht Specific Training	Experienced Seafarers
STCW'95 training courses / ENG1 / Food Hygiene module Catering level 2	Certificates from previous courses attended. Including specialist Training	Certificates from previous courses attended. Including specialist Training	Service Record Book / Log Book or Discharge book.

Certificate of Competency

The GUEST© certification system is modular in structure, including formal training, practical experience and assessment. The GUEST© program offers training objectives & syllabus outlines for each individual module defined in the GUEST© Guidelines. The letter of assessment is based on equivalent objectives being met at each level of training.

On completion of the objectives, the crew member can apply for the relevant COC.

- Yacht Junior Steward / Stewardess GUEST© CoC
- Yacht Senior Steward / Stewardess GUEST© CoC
- Yacht Chief Steward / Stewardess GUEST© CoC
