Via Jinja Rd:

Turn left at Nile Breweries. Travel for 26 kilometres on this road (passing Nile Horseback safaris and The Haven), till you get to the town of Kangulumira. Turn right just before the PetroCity Service Station. Travel 3 kilometres on this murrum road (straight through roundabout in town) till you get to a metal fence and gate on left hand side. Wildwaters Lodge Guard will let you in and direct you to parking. He will radio the lodge to send a boat.

Gayaza /Kayunga Road:

This is our preferred route as there is less traffic and it's very scenic and slightly shorter than coming via Jinja. If you haven't come this way before it can be easier to come on the Jinja rd. and return on the Gayaza Road. To get to Gayaza Road from Kampala centre travel to Ntinda from Bukoto along Kira Road and turn left at main junction to travel past the Ndere Centre. After Ndere Centre you reach the Northern bypass round a bout. Take the 2nd exit. At the T-junction turn right moving past Moonberg Breweries. Travel along this road until you get to a junction at Kayunga town (you will see a large blue Wildwaters sign up on the right hand side DELETE-sign gone). TURN RIGHT TOWARDS JINJA. Travel past Nazigo village until you get to KANGULUMIRA where you will see another large white and blue Wildwaters sign on the left hand side. Turn left just after PetroCity Petrol Station. Travel 3kms along a murrum road until you get to a metal fence and green gate on left. Wildwaters guard will let you in and direct you to the boat.
