“Expansive Horizons”
Lemala Mpingo Ridge is situated on a ridge with elevated views across the Tarangire River and valley below. Being the sixth largest national Park in Tanzania it remains slightly off the main safari circuit but is truly a little gem and a great place to start your experience of Safari in Tanzania.
Sweeping views of the park from each tented suite and the main areas make this property not only unique but truly special. Each of the 15 spacious tented suites have been carefully positioned to maximize not only the amazing views but also to take advantage of the cooling winds during the hot season.
There’s nothing quite like climbing into a luxurious bath to revive the senses, soothe the soul and wash away the African dust. Positioned on raised elevated decks under the star studded skies enjoy in a hot bath as you gaze out over Tarangire lost in your thoughts of your first days experience.
Magnificent granite boulders surrounding the public areas, and guests can enjoy the most spectacular views that Tarangire has to offer from the comfort of bar, lounge or outside seating areas. Or take a stroll down to the pool area and enjoy a refreshing swim.
Sundowners are more than just a happy hour, they are a very cherished African tradition and form an integral part of your safari experience and one not to be missed! Alternatively a morning walk to enjoy some up close wildlife encounters coupled with a night drive make Tarangire somewhere not to be missed on your safari itinerary!
Is there a better place in Africa to view wildlife?
Rambling through the bush in an open-topped vehicle is the image that springs to mind most when people think about Africa. And there is no better place to go on safari than Tanzania. The sense of anticipation, as you set off at daybreak, Never knowing what lies around the next corner – or behind the next tree. Perhaps a lion in a tree, a leopard sloping off through the bush or a herd of elephants majestically crossing the plains... it's the thrill of the chase that keeps you going back for more.

Discover the real Tanzania!
Ask a first-time traveller to Africa what they are looking forward to seeing most and they will probably reply, “the wildlife”. Ask them, on their return home, what the best bit of their trip was and they will more-than-likely say, “the people”. Tanzanians are among the most welcoming and approachable people on earth. With a wide variety of fascinating cultures to discover, and along with the phenomenal wildlife, it is likely to be one of the most rewarding experiences of your life.
