Over the next few months we are going to be reflecting on the whole of scripture. There are so many lessons we can learn from the lives of those who fill the pages but also the Father, Son and Holy Spirit that reveal themselves through the lives and circumstances of others

Today we reflect on the life of King Solomon. Solomon has the opportunity to ask God for whatever he wants.....yet he chooses to ask for wisdom.

Wisdom is something that can be at times lacking in our lives, when we choose to live our lives without God's guidance. How can this message on wisdom today change your life and the life of others?

"If any of you lacks wisdom, you should ask God, who gives generously to all without finding fault, and it will be given to you"

– James 1:5

Reflection Points

Consider the following scripture verses this week as you reflect on

- James 3:17
- Ephesians 5:15-17
- Colossians 3:16
- Proverbs 2:6
- Luke 21:15
- Psalm 111:10

CHURCH OF THE REDEEMER
BAPTIST CHURCH

O praise the name of the Lord our God
O praise His name forever more
For endless days we will sing Your praise
Oh Lord, oh Lord our God

He shall return in robes of white,
The blazing Son shall pierce the night.
And I will rise among the saints,
My gaze transfixed on Jesus' face

(Instrumental)

O praise the name of the Lord our God
O praise His name forever more
For endless days we will sing Your praise
Oh Lord, oh Lord our God

O praise the name of the Lord our God
O praise His name forever more
For endless days we will sing Your praise
Oh Lord, oh Lord our God
Oh Lord, oh Lord our God

Prayer for the Week

Jesus,

Lord, I'm here today with open hands and an open heart, ready to depend on you to help me through the day and all it will bring my way.

Help me be like Nehemiah, help me come to you for guidance, strength, provision and protection.

As I face tough choices and hard situations, help me remember my belovedness, help me remember that I am Your child and Your representative to the world around me.

Help me live today in a way that brings honour to Your name.

AMEN
