Today’s Prayer of Confession, on this Sunday when we were celebrating Rumble’s history, comes from the 1946 Book of Common Worship of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America

Flowers in the sanctuary today are given to the glory of god in honor and memory of grandfathers A. Donald Allen, Graham Harwood and Don Ledbetter from the wedding of Haley Banks Harwood and David Ray Allen.

Today Rumble welcomes Dr. Janet Barton Speer, director, and members of the cast of From the Mountaintop: The Edgar Tufts Story, to worship at Rumble. Rumble is blessed to welcome these talented musicians and to hear a great preview of this wonderful musical that celebrates the life and ministry of one of Rumble’s first pastors, Reverend Edgar Tufts. Let the Children Come is the Grandfather Home story. King of Glory and Bless the Lord are done in mountain church, shape note style in a square. Nearer My God to Thee is about a time when Edgar and 35 others climbed Grandfather Mountain and watched the sunset. They sang "Nearer My God to Thee" and a woman recited the 19th Psalm. The music and lyrics were written by John Thomas Oaks and Tommy Oaks.

The Pennies for Hunger offering is received today in addition to our morning offering. This monthly offering supports the hunger ministries of Salem Presbytery, including our own Blowing Rock CARES and the Hospitality House in Boone.

Rumble is Making and Impact in the name of Jesus Christ! As we celebrate with special guest musicians this morning, we give thanks for the impact of Rumble’s remarkable music ministry, our talented music staff, choral scholars, and volunteer choir and handbell choir members. Rumble is blessed with incredible music each and every Sunday of the year. The music in worship touches hearts and souls of all who come to worship here.
