Our Festival of Harvest

‘Come, ye thankful people, come! Raise the song of harvest home...’

Those are words we usually sing in late November when we’re celebrating the great day of thanks, Thanksgiving, when we praise God for the bountiful gifts we receive every day of our lives.

God’s people received this directive in Deuteronomy 16:10: Then celebrate the Festival of Harvest to honor the Lord your God. Bring to the Lord a voluntary offering in proportion to the blessings you have received from him.

That’s why you at Rumple are going to hear the word ‘harvest’ a LOT in September, because your Stewardship Committee believes that those words are appropriate for this month. As Bill Cuthill has said many times, we don’t just think stewardship in one month, it’s ALL YEAR LONG! But in September, in the mountains, this is when we bring in the harvest, and this year, we’ll bring in the harvest of promise to support and care for our own ‘Harvest Home’ – Rumple Memorial Presbyterian Church, our church home. As good stewards of God’s fields (where we live), we will bring in the sheaves to nourish the future of this congregation. But why do we do this?

My friend Feild shared a story recently that shocks us into realizing the joy and importance of supporting that which we love. I also want to share this anonymous offering with you:

Where do we put our money? Americans spend annually more on dog food than on church contributions. It is not unusual for an individual to pay more for his or her country club membership than he gives to the church.

Is the church costing too much? Let me share my experience with you. On June 2, 1960, a little girl was born to us. She cost us money from the moment she was born (not to count the 9 months before). As she grew from babyhood to girlhood, she cost even more – her clothing and shoes were more expensive, and we had to have the doctor through all those childhood diseases. She was even more expensive during her school and teen years. She needed athletic shoes for sports, school trips, and long dresses to go to her proms. Then she was accepted to a college, and we discovered, along with other parents, that all college expenses are not listed in the catalog. Then, after graduation, she fell in love and married. She was married in a church wedding; and that, too, cost a lot of money. Then five months after her marriage, she didn’t feel well, and soon was diagnosed with a disease that took her life shortly after. “Our daughter hasn’t cost us a penny since the day we walked away from her grave.” “As long as the church is alive, she will cost money. And the more alive a church is, the more money she will cost. Only a dead church is no longer expensive.”

Something to think about...

Presbyterian Women

The Presbyterian Women would like to congratulate the 2016 recipient of the Presbyterian Women Honorary Life Membership, Jean Williamson. It is hard to think of Jean without smiling because of her sweet smile and special giggle. She gives unselfishly of herself, her time and her talents. Everything she does is to the glory of God and in a loving and compassionate way. Since joining Rumple +30 years ago, Jean has been faithful through thick and thin, sharing many activities with her husband. She was founder of the Prayer Shawl Ministry and taught many folks to knit. The Hunger and Health Coalition captured her heart—she worked with Martha Lyon in the mobile pharmacy, never knowing it would become an intricate part of the High Country. She was an active realtor with her own real estate company and worked with Bill and son, Steve, at Stephens Restaurant. Her warmth showed as hostess and baker extraordinaire. She will be missed as she moves to her homeplace area in Matthews, but she will make her mark there also. Thank you, Jean, for all you have done and continue to do for Rumple and community. You lovingly contribute to others so that no one ever goes without.

Knitters Needed

The Prayer Shawl Ministry has lost four members this past year. Both knitters and crocheters are needed in order to keep the ministry going. The group presently meets on the second Thursday of each month in the Rumple House.

New Opportunity School for Women at Lees-McRae College

Jennie Harpold was the speaker at the Presbyterian Women's Annual Meeting on August 27. She presented information on this great program. Founded in 1987, this organization seeks to improve the educational, financial, and personal circumstances of low income women in the Appalachian region. Each summer the program welcomes up to 14 women for a free 3-week residential program that allows the women to explore career options, educational goals, and leadership development, and also participate in a self-esteem boosting curriculum. Applications accepted throughout the year. To learn more, visit lmc.edu/nosw.

August Blessings

Annual Picnic Really Big!

Our Annual Picnic, sponsored by the Fellowship Committee, was held right after worship on August 28 with a crowd of more than 125, a slide for the kids, and tables under the skies (and it didn't rain!). The Fellowship Crew had more picnickers than expected so the food was a little short in the end, but next time, they say, they'll be ready!!

Many thanks to our hardworking Fellowship Committee, chaired by Jackie Kirkland and Mary Holstein, whose goal, they say, has been to give Rumble a time of fellowship around the table. You've done that in many settings and so well. We truly thank you!

Our 99th Annual Grandfather Home for Children/Children's Hope Alliance Sunday was held on August 21, and what a memorable day it was! The pews were full to read the beloved old passages from the Bible and sing the old songs so many of us love from the turn of the 20th century. The Burnett Sisters and the Cockman Family provided wonderful musical leadership.

One of the blessings that day was four-year old Morgen Cockman (here with Elder Danny Kirkland). Morgen was adopted by the Cockmans from the Gradfather Home, which made the day that much more meaningful to us all. In the service, we spoke with joy, 'God is good!'

Church Nurture

Be a Part of Something New! Covenant Bible Study Begins Sunday September 18

COVENANT IS AN IN-DEPTH GROUP BIBLE STUDY IN WHICH PARTICIPANTS READ AND DISCUSS THE BIBLE TOGETHER, LEARNING HOW TO LOVE GOD – AND EACH OTHER – BETTER.

Three 8-episode segments each explore a different aspect of Covenant life. Each will examine what Covenant means, and the progression of a Covenant relationship with God. The entire course is 24 weeks, but will be broken into three 8-week segments.

* CREATING: Examines how the Covenant community is created and established

* LIVING: Focuses on how the community lives out their Covenant in faithful love – how it's applied to actual relationships in everyday life.

* TRUSTING: Looks at the crises that sometimes call Covenant life into question, and how we are restored to trust in God when troubling things happen.

Covenant represents a relationship – a living, breathing conversation. And we invite you to join in it!

Rumble will be hosting this 24 week course on Sunday afternoons beginning on Sunday September 18, 3:00 p.m. – 4:30 p.m. Led by our Director of Christian Education, Cameron Womack. To sign-up or learn more, see the information in the display case, or contact Cameron today.

The Church and Politics

On Tuesday, September 13, at 11:30 a.m. in the Library, Dr. Don Saunders, retired professor of history, will lead the first of six "Lunch and Learn" sessions centered on the study book The Church and Politics. This brief (44-pp.) book is written by David True, a member minister of the Presbytery of Carlisle, Pennsylvania, and associate professor of religion at Wilson College in Pennsylvania. A publication in the series "Being Reformed: Faith Seeking Understanding," it addresses the issue of how we, as Christians of the Reformed faith, might regard the political dimensions of life. "When people hold diverse views about what government should be and how government should act, what should our attitudes be as those who are followers of the 'King of Kings and Lord of lords?'" (from the Introduction).

Drawing upon historical examples from Scripture, the Reformation, and four representative American political eras, we will be asked to use our heads, hearts, and hands (as the Being Reformed series tries to have us do) as we survey ways political life has been and can be engaged in by Christians, in the past and today.

In our time together:

--get a historical overview of the interactions between faith and political involvement.

-- sort through some of the conflicting political positions we are exposed to all around us these days;

--listen for the call of Christ to be better disciples of His;

--develop a better appreciation for the possibilities of Christian citizenship in our communities and in the USA.

As in past Lunch and Learn sessions, you are welcome to bring a sack lunch or offer snacks to share with the class. We will conclude each session by 1:00 p.m.

Cameron has copies of the book available now.

CARING FOR A LEGACY

Women of the church have reupholstered the Victorian settee in the Rumble House. This lovely piece has been a favorite place for brides to pose for photos despite the worn fabric and exposed foam rubber seat. A closer look showed that the sun from the parlor's bay window had damaged the wood finish. Now she's been refinished and recovered and placed out of the sun to enjoy for years to come.

The settee, along with two matching upholstered chairs and several marble top tables, was a gift from the estate of Edith Holhouser Burns in the early 1980's. A Blowing Rock native, she and her husband Jesse owned and operated the Sunshine Inn (now The New Public House). When they retired they bought the home next door to the Inn and Ragged Garden became their private residence (now Inn at Ragged Garden). Mrs. Burns was a Sunday School teacher at Rumble for many years.

The Archives and Acquisitions Committee is working to record information and inventory the gifts received by the church from members. If you have information or would like to help the committee, please contact Rita White.

Gardening Tools Needed If you have any good gardening tools that you no longer need, Rumble could make good use of them. A good wheelbarrow is especially needed, along with a sharp spade and any pruning tools. Please call the church office or talk to Joe Kiker if you have any questions or have any items to donate.

Rumple On A Mission

RUMPLE on A Mission

Where do you find YOUR Passion for Mission?

Rumple Church has a long history in service to Christ in our community. In their every day lives, our members reach out to share their gifts with other organizations. We hope to be a beacon of God's light and love wherever we go.

We have been providing opportunities to grow in service during the last eight months and are so pleased with Rumple's response to the needs in our world...from Blowing Rock C.A.R.E.S. on our campus to Wine to Water's outreach worldwide. But we know that you have each found a desire to serve in some way. You can be an inspiration to others by sharing your story...your passion!

Our mission this month, is to continue what we've begun with our ongoing projects and to inspire others with your stories. Where have you found a need that you want to fill? In what activity did you participate that "once was not enough"? What ideas do you have for Rumple on a Mission for which you'd like to mobilize our congregation to action?

We will compile a video story filled with vignettes of our members in service including interviews and photographs. Please contact Debora Smith, 773-1966 or deborawsm@gmail.com so that we can arrange a time to capture your story. And in the meantime, keep doing the good work that you do!

Rumple On A Mission. Luke 4:18

New Address for Greg, Janice and Andrew Grana is 102 Canty Court, Cary, NC 27511 and their phone number is 919-377-8477.

Congregational Care - We are all in this together! Rumple's Congregational Care Committee is focused on making our congregation aware of Christ's love and the church's support as we make our faith journey through the high and lows of this life. We need your help in volunteering for service with our Contact sub-committee, a group committed to reaching out through calls, notes and visits to Rumple folks in need. We even have a freezer stocked with goodies to share! We want to celebrate 90th birthdays and 50th anniversaries and other happy events!

The CCC is also developing a Prayer list that will be updated weekly and printed in the bulletin. Its accuracy will only be as good as the collective knowledge of all Rumple members, so we kindly ask that you notify the church office (rmprc123@bellsouth.net), Jim Ruff (jimruff@gmail.com), or Karen Gaddy (Karen.gaddy@gmail.com).

Stewardship in September!

Your Stewardship Committee has been working for months to prepare for a great celebration of stewardship – that is, being good stewards of what God has given us here at Rumble, and calling for the congregation to step forward with pledge support and care for Rumble in 2017.

During September, the SC feels we need to remember and celebrate what a great church God has given us here by remembering it's our Harvest Home. That doesn't mean just those employed or those who are called to serve on Session or committees, but ALL of US! That's why we'll enjoy our community with lemonade each of the first three September Sundays (on the lawn if weather permits or, if rains, the library) by the Fellowship Committee and some fun fellowship activities by the Christian Education Committee.

Each Sunday, someone from the congregation will share their testimony of what Rumble has meant to them in their lives, reminding us that we ALL have a story to tell!

We will also be called on to pray for Rumble with a partner during September. Directions for this prayer will be given in worship.

You will receive a letter from the committee – Buz Helms, Danny Kirkland, and Bill Thorn – which will include a stewardship card which you will be called on to bring the last Sunday of September or to send in.

The last Sunday, September 25, we will bring our cards to worship. And after worship, we will celebrate our Harvest Home, Rumble, with a Harvest Homecoming. Stewardship will provide turkey for the feast, and the congregation will be called on to provide the sides and dessert. The Fellowship Committee will provide drinks. Together we will thank the Lord for what God has done here in this place we call our church home.
