Molly Gilleskie, Liturgist

People: who gives food to the hungry and sets prisoners free;
Liturgist: who upholds the orphaned and the widowed,
People: and executes justice for the oppressed.
Liturgist: Let us praise the Lord as long as we live;
People: We will sing praises to God while we have breath.

+HYMN OF PRAISE

“I’ll Praise My Maker”

No. 806
Tune: OLD 113TH

+PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Holy and healing God, may our confession this day be not so much a recitation of what we have done wrong as an acknowledgement of what is broken in our lives. We confess to you our pain: the pain we have inflicted on others, and the pain we inflict on ourselves; the pain of strangers across the world and in our own communities, of prisoners and the oppressed, of all those hungering in body or spirit. We invite you into our pain. We ask you to heal and forgive us, to undo what is wrong, to bring peace and even joy. Hear now our silent confession, offered to you in hope.

ANTHEM

Cantique de Jean Racine, Op. 11

Gabriel Fauré

O divine Word above, our hope and consolation, eternal light of the heavens and earth, our voices greet the morning: Look down, O Lord, and hear thy people's prayer.

*Inspire us, Lord, we pray, with the power of thy Spirit,
That hell may flee before thy mighty word.
From slumber waken us, our weary souls reviving.
That we may never forget all thy laws!*

Lord Jesus Christ, have mercy on thy congregation now gathered here in the sight of Thy throne:

*Receive the hymns they offer to thy eternal glory:
Renewed by thy gifts may they go forth in peace. **
