Called to Worship ✠✠✠ Empowered to Serve
A Mission Church
Bringing Members In, Sending Disciples Out

Dear Rumple Family,

I am still having a hard time believing that Advent begins on Sunday. I love this season of the year because of all the beautiful lights and decorations that we see all around us. I also love this season of waiting and preparation that we share in worship. I was reading one of my worship resources this week and wanted to share these with you, “The season of Advent, a season of waiting, is designed to cultivate our awareness of God’s actions—past, present, and future. In Advent we hear the prophecies of the Messiah’s coming as addressed to us—people who wait for the second coming. In Advent we heighten our anticipation for the ultimate fulfillment of all Old Testament promises, when the wolf will lie down with the lamb, death will be swallowed up, and every tear will be wiped away. In this way Advent highlights for us the larger story of God’s redemptive plan.” (The Worship Sourcebook, p 427.)

While this “most wonderful time of the year” is that for many, as your pastor I know it is not wonderful for everyone. This year, in conjunction with our brothers and sisters of St. Mary’s Episcopal Church, we will host an Advent Service of Hope and Remembrance, on Wednesday, December 13 at 6:00 p.m. in our sanctuary. This service will provide a space for us to recognize that this is a hard time for many folks- especially those who grieve the loss of a loved one, a broken relationship, or the continued brokenness in our world. With prayer, Scripture, and music we will offer time for folks to share their hurt and sorrow during this season. I hope you will come and bring a friend who might find a service like this comforting and healing as well.

In this season of watching and waiting, we have so much to be grateful for and so much to anticipate. I look forward to making this advent journey with you- whether you are here in the High Country or off the mountain for the winter- and to celebrating the greatest gift we have ever received, Jesus Christ our Savior and Lord.

Your Pastor,

Kathy

P.S. As we look toward the new year there is a lot to celebrate at Rumple. The Session adopted a balanced budget for 2018- with increased funding for missions and programs. A new board is being formed for Blowing Rock CARES and the Missions Committee is planning a special event in early 2018 in conjunction with St. Mary’s and the Presbyterian-Episcopal Campus Ministry at ASU. The youth are planning a mission trip to Charlotte in February and to do hurricane relief in summer 2018. All the church buildings are all up-fitted with working wifi now which will allow for all kinds of technology for teaching, learning, and more. I am looking forward to 2018 at Rumple!

There will be no Slate and Stone mailed by January 1. Slate and Stone will be abbreviated for January and arrive in homes around January 8 or 9.

All fall Rumple has been celebrating its Treasures New and Old.

This theme, taken from Matthew 13, focused our attention on 130 years of ministry and mission in the High Country and the great future that God has planned for Rumple. The Stewardship Committee is thrilled to report that the response has been fantastic! As of November 28, Rumple has received 87 estimates of giving totaling $247,085. This represents the highest number of givers and the highest total amount pledged since 2014. This generous support of Rumple enabled the Session to adopt a balanced budget for 2018, at their November 27 meeting. The 2018 budget includes increased funding for missions and for ministry programs. Thanks be to God!

Welcome New Members

Alex and Anne Bernhardt come to Rumple church from the presbytery of Western North Carolina. They are lifelong Presbyterians and long-term residents of Lenoir, who also have a home here in Blowing Rock. They have spent their working careers (and they are not fully retired yet) in the furniture and design business. Alex has been an elder and a deacon in the Presbyterian Church (USA.) He is interested in nature conservation, local history and culture, and old time music. Anne has served as a Sunday School and bible teacher in previous churches. She also served as mayor pro-tem of Lenoir. Anne loves trout fishing and Cajun accordion and fiddle playing.

Thank you to Elders in the Class of 2017

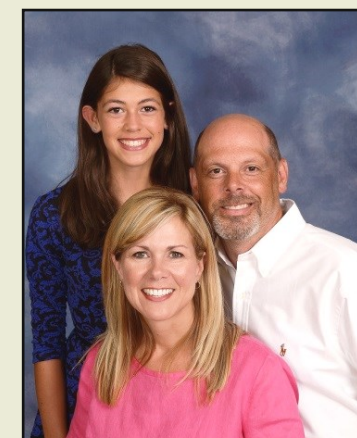

One of the many blessings at Rumple is the incredible willingness of so many members and friends to share of their time and talents with the church. I continue to be amazed at the gifts that you each offer and your generosity with your time when it comes to Rumple- from folding bulletins to changing lightbulbs to working in the church gardens to caring for little ones in the nursery to accompanying the youth on retreats. Rumple is truly blessed!

I wanted to make a special shout out to three folks, though, the elders in the class of 2017: Audrey Gurkin, Brenda Lentz, and Bill Thorn. These three agreed to be among the spiritual leaders of this church during a time of transition. During their three years of service they have had at least four, maybe more, moderators of the Session (pastor or interim pastor.) They have helped to lead Rumple through both transition, change, and quite a few challenges.

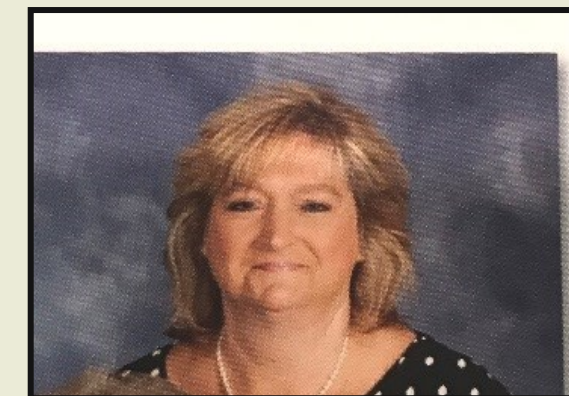

One of the great aspects of our Presbyterian way, in my opinion, is that we truly try to abide by what Presbyterian means- we are ruled (led) by our elders. The Session is a team, trying together to discern God's will for the church in any given situation. Audrey, Brenda, and Bill have been a part of that discernment and spiritual leadership for three years- which is a huge commitment. We thank them for their service on church committees too: Fellowship (Audrey), Worship (Brenda), and Properties (Bill). If you see these folks around Rumple, please join me in thanking them for their three years of leadership and service at Rumple. Kathy

Rumple on a Mission

Grace upon grace, God of light that cannot be overcome and life that never ends, we pray this Christmas to welcome the Prince of Peace, not just with "Silent Night," but with joy, to and for the world.....Make us, like Mary, God-bearers, willing to say "yes" to whatever you ask of us. Make us, like the shepherds, eager evangelists filled with praise and wonder. Make us, like Joseph, open to divine plans that are nothing like the ones we had envisioned for ourselves. Make us, like the wise men, ready to give to Christ the best that we have to offer. Use us to proclaim the Word made flesh in ways that make the incarnation evident to all creation. – Prayer by Jill Duffield, Presbyterian Outlook

Rumple on a Mission in December is supporting Rumple's Angel Tree and Elderberry outreach ministries. These ministry projects help area elderly, children and families have a joyous and blessed Christmas!

The Angel Tree, with the names, ages, and clothing sizes of children needing our help, is displayed in the church lobby. We hope you will choose an angel, purchase and wrap gifts, and return the gifts to the office beside Kathy's study or upstairs in classroom # 4 by Sunday, December 10 so that they can be distributed to families. You will also have the opportunity to buy a food/grocery gift card for a family. Please be sure to sign your name and phone number on the clipboards in the lobby beside the name and number of the child and/or family you choose. Any questions about this ministry may be directed to Susan Suddreth at 263-0821, or Teresa Lentz at 295-3276.

Circle 4 and Kim Kincaid are leading the Elderberry project this year. Local elderly identified by the Hunger and Health Coalition will receive grocery gift certificates, stockings, and other gifts. Thanks to many generous donors and shoppers, Elderberry is well underway this year. If you would like to be involved in this ministry, please email Kim Kincaid: kim-kincaid@charter.net

We also continue our monthly food collections for Blowing Rock C.A.R.E.S. Blowing Rock C.A.R.E.S. is a food bank that helps provide basic non-perishable food to families and individuals in Watauga County. The Blowing Rock C.A.R.E.S. food pantry is open for clients on Mondays from 9 am to 1 pm right here at Rumple. The December items of need for Blowing Rock C.A.R.E.S. are fruit in natural juice, pinto beans, toilet paper, and feminine products. Please bring your items throughout the month of December and leave them in the shopping cart in the church lobby.

Thanks to all who helped with the Thanksgiving food deliveries! Rumple members and friends teamed up with Blowing Rock CARES to feed 11 families (54 people), with children at Blowing Rock School, for Thanksgiving and the Thanksgiving break. Thank you to Tracy Markland who coordinated this event for Rumple Missions and for the over 25 folks who volunteered to help, shop, pack, deliver, and help at church with meals that were picked up.

...and a sincere THANK YOU to this generous congregation for the wonderful support in 2017 for Rumple Missions: From Wine to Water, Habitat for Humanity, Hurricane relief efforts, and dinners at Hospitality House (just to name a few!), Rumple shared the Good News in word and deed. We look forward to continuing our work together in 2018!

Rumple at Work

Go Sing It on the Mountain

"Go Sing It on the Mountain," is the title of the Christmas Cantata that the choir, along with instrumentalists will present during the 11:00 am worship service on December 10, 2017. The new cantata by North Carolina based composer, Pepper Choplin, features traditional Christmas Carols along with some original settings of the timeless birth narrative. Employing a highly inventive mixture of mountain melodies, folk hymns, spirituals, familiar carols, and original music that is sure to surprise and delight, "Go Sing It on the Mountain" proclaims the good news from the prophet Isaiah's proclamation, "Comfort, O comfort my people!" to the final exuberant celebration: "Joy to the world! Christ is born!" You might even see an old-time band with Guitars, Mandolin, Banjo and Double Bass. Mark your calendars, December 10th, for "Go Sing It on the Mountain."

to the world

Second Sunday Christmas Lunch December 10 immediately following worship. This is the Sunday the choir will lead us with their Christmas Cantata so lunch will be a great way to thank them! And the youth will make Christmas cookies to decorate during lunch for everyone to enjoy. Ham will be provided by the Fellowship Committee—please bring a side dish or salad to share.

Holiday Service of Hope and Remembrance

For many people, this holiday season is not joyful but a sad and lonely time. In this service of prayers and special music, all those who find this season hard are invited to come and be reminded of the comfort and presence of God. We will celebrate the light of Christ that shines brighter than any darkness. This service is open to anyone so please invite friends and neighbors too.

Why not join an Adult Sunday School class at Rumble this December? The Men's Class does traditional bible study with discussions led by class members and meets in Rumble House. The Women's Class does the same traditional bible study and meets in the Library.
