Called to Worship ††† Empowered to Serve
A Mission Church
Bringing Members In, Sending Disciples Out

Dear Rumple Family,

Somehow, it is almost February! I am not sure what happened to January, but I do know that we have had a lot of snow and winter weather events. I guess, as one of you said to me, I have had a “baptism by ice” to winter weather in the High Country.

As I look ahead in this new year, and approach my one year anniversary here at Rumple, there is so much that I am excited about and so much I am looking forward to. I am excited about the new board and new volunteers who are joining an already great team with Blowing Rock CARES. I am excited about collaborative efforts, in mission and worship, that Rumple will share with St. Mary’s Episcopal Church, Faithbridge United Methodist Church, and Presbyterian Episcopal Campus Ministries at ASU. You can read more in this Slate and Stone the about Rise Against Hunger event and you will hear about Palm Sunday worship plans by early March.

I am also excited about the Session’s decision to enter into a covenant with the Reverend Brant Piper, a pastoral counselor, who will open a “satellite” office of the Presbyterian Counseling Center in Charlotte, here at Rumple. We will join a group of Presbyterian Churches who share their space with counselors from this center. This will be a great partnership and will provide a good pastoral counselor for Rumple and the High Country area.

Many of you continue to ask about what Rumple plans to do about filling the position vacated by Cameron Womack this fall, on a more permanent basis. (We have hired Kalie Gorham on a part-time basis through May.) The Personnel Committee will be meeting soon and establishing a plan of action that will be reported to the Session and the congregation. I am excited to see where this process lead us, as well.

And, I am really looking forward to my upcoming wedding, on February 16, in Wilmington. My fiancé, Lance, will be here at Rumple all the Sundays of February so, weather permitting, I hope that many of you will be able to meet him and get to know him. We do look forward to a time of celebration, when the weather warms up, here in Blowing Rock. We are excited to begin this new chapter of our lives here at Rumple. I thank you, in advance, for your prayers and your support.

I remain grateful for God’s call in my life that brought me to Rumple eleven months ago.

Your Pastor,

Kathy

Hymn for February

In this, our first article on hymns for the 2018 calendar year, it seems only proper to begin with hymn number one in our current Presbyterian hymnal; Holy, Holy, Holy. Our former Presbyterian hymnal (1990) began with another hymn and in the view of many congregations was off to a questionable start. Regardless, Holy, Holy, Holy has proven a mainstay in multiple denominations and traditions since its first appearance in 1826.

Holy, Holy, Holy was written by Reginald Heber (1783-1826), one of the pioneers in the early nineteenth century, in a form that highlights the literary refinement of poetry in the style of English hymnody. Showing early aptitude in poetry by translating a Latin classic into English verse at age seven, Heber went on to enter Oxford at the age of seventeen. He wrote the text for Holy, Holy, Holy during his tenure as vicar of Hodnet, Shropshire, 1807-23. Based on Isaiah 6:3, and Revelation 4:1-11, the scripture references attempts to worship God in voice and song.

The tune (NICEA) for Holy, Holy, Holy was written by John Bacchus Dykes (1823-1876), and is celebrated as one of the most universally associated tune and text in print. It is a tribute to the First Council of Nicaea which formalized the doctrine of the Trinity in 325 AD, and creates a ceremonial feel that celebrates God's creation each new day (early in the morning our song shall rise to Thee).

The tone of Reginald Heber's text is that of ceremonial praise and names the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit at the end of stanzas one and four. For this reason if none other, it begs to be sung on Trinity Sunday in the celebration of the Christian Year.

I remember singing hymns in my home church congregation standing beside my grandmother who made it a weekly habit of beginning each worship service with a stick of Juicy Fruit gum. A bit of a bribe up front: time to behave yourself. Although the same each Sunday, it was always a treat to get a stick of gum.

It was also a treat to hear hymn number one announced: Holy, Holy, Holy. It must have been the best hymn if for no other reason that being placed first in the hymnal. I didn't understand the theology of the hymn at that time, but I certainly understood how it made me feel about the church and about God. The soaring melody and regal harmony created a celebration of this new day of God's creation.

Three of the four stanzas share unabashed praise by those expressing their faith by singing to God in worship. The only break from praise directed to God occurs in stanza three. For a brief moment, the focus of the singer changes from God to man. Contrasting our condition (sinful) to God's holiness, the hymn turns toward our shortcomings to recognize God's glory being foreshadowed by the darkness of sin. The third and fourth line of the stanza also warn us of a common sin. "Only Thou art holy," gives us pause to placing anything worldly beside God's holiness. The stanza concludes with a final nod to the Trinity that we found in the first stanza.

Holy, Holy, Holy invites us while celebrating God's goodness and creation, to also place ourselves appropriately in creation as the created. A little lower than the angels (Psalm 8) but ready to claim God's goodness as our own. Standing the test of time, I predict that Holy, Holy, Holy, will continue to inspire many generations to come, with or without a stick of Juicy Fruit gum. Thanks be to God.

Annual Congregational Meeting February 4

The session has called the annual meeting of the congregation for Sunday, February 4, immediately following worship. The purposes of the meeting will be to approve changes in the terms of call for our pastor and to receive the annual report, including financial reports for 2017 and the session-approved budget for 2018. All members are encouraged to remain after worship for this short but important meeting.

Can you help and check that the church doors are closed when you exit the building? Rumple has many doors and there are lots of people in and out of the building each day. This is a wonderful thing! But, the staff often finds doors that have not been pulled closed- particularly the sanctuary doors closest to Main Street. Thanks!

Lent at Rumple

ASH WEDNESDAY marks the beginning of the 40 days of Lent, the season of preparation and examination leading up to Easter. Rumple will host a worship service on Ash Wednesday at 6:00 p.m. in the sanctuary. The service will include prayer, music, Scripture, the imposition of ashes, and invitation to the Lenten disciplines. Childcare will be provided for this service in the nursery.

Ash Wednesday
— Lent Begins

The Walk: A Spiritual Journey through Lent, A six week small group prayer and bible study. The Walk is an intentional time for people to gather around the Word of God and reflect on their relationship with Jesus Christ. The small group will meet each Tuesday at 11:30-1:00, and repeated on Tuesday evening, 6:00-7:30 p.m., beginning February 20 and continuing through March 13. Groups will meet in The Rumple House and will be led by pastor, Kathy Beach. Interested participants please sign up with Hazel (office@rumplechurch.org) so that you will have ample time to read a small book in preparation for the group. The book, Making All Things New: An Invitation to the Spiritual Life, by Henri Nouwen, will be available in the church office for purchase, $10 each, beginning February 8. If you are unable to participate in the group but would like to read along with the book, please speak to Kathy.

The Rumple Christian Education Committee invites you to a Holy and intentional season of Lent. As we did during the season of Advent, Rumple will be sending out daily emails with Scripture, a short devotion, and prayer. If you are not currently on the Rumple email list, please get in touch with Hazel in the church office, office@rumplechurch.org. And, beginning on Ash Wednesday, a Lenten calendar, with daily Scriptures, prayer, and spiritual practice ideas will also be available in the church office and at the entrances to the sanctuary. The Committee also hopes to put this calendar up online so that you can print out your own copy at home, if you wish.

Please also read about the Rise Against Hunger mission afternoon on March 18 on the missions page of this Slate and Stone. This is another wonderful opportunity to join, with fellow followers of Jesus, in the spiritual practice of mission and service.

Rumple on a Mission

Lord, strengthen our hands to do the work of bringing your justice and mercy to this world. Open our ears to the cries of the homeless, the hungry, the sick, and victims of war. Show us new opportunities to serve you with hammers, pots, medicine and our own presence. Amen.
- excerpt from a prayer by Rev. Gradye Parsons, former PC(USA) General Assembly Stated Clerk

Missions 2018 is ready to go, and we hope you are too! We are coordinating our efforts this year around quarterly Missions projects. Each quarter will highlight areas of need and agencies responding to those needs. Our first quarter focuses on hunger and food insecurity. From February through the spring, we will help address the needs in our community and world through support of Blowing Rock CARES and Rise Against Hunger.

Blowing Rock CARES - Rumple has a long history with BR C.A.R.E.S. and will continue our support in 2018 with monthly food collections. BR C.A.R.E.S. is a food bank that helps provide basic non-perishable food to families and individuals in Watauga County. The BR CARES food pantry is open for clients on Mondays from 9 am to 1 pm right here at Rumple.

NEW PROCESS FOR FOOD COLLECTIONS - We are changing our item and food collection for 2018, but only slightly. In order to highlight the needs of BR C.A.R.E.S. and to make a more concerted effort to meet those needs, we will collect food and other items on the first Sunday of every month. Our first Sunday happens to be Souper Bowl Sunday on February 4. The items of need for the February 4th collection are canned meats (chicken, tuna, etc.), canned beans, fruit in natural juice, and toilet tissue. Please bring your items on February 4th. We will have shopping carts for collections. We will continue to have the shopping cart in the church lobby in case you miss the first Sunday but would still like to donate items.

Rise Against Hunger -- We are co-hosting a meal-packaging event with Rise Against Hunger on Sunday, March 18 at 3:00pm at the American Legion in Blowing Rock. We will package meals for 1-2 hours, then share a potluck meal. We are partnering with St. Mary of the Hills, FaithBridge, and the Appalachian State Presbyterian Episcopal Campus Ministry to package over 10,000 dehydrated meals for those in need around the world. Rise Against Hunger is an international hunger relief organization based in Raleigh, NC. The packaged meals are used primarily to support school feeding programs in developing countries, which not only addresses hunger but also the related challenges of poverty, disease, education, and the welfare of women and children. Email Anita Henderson if you would like more information, anitahen@att.net.

THANK YOU to all who helped prepare and serve dinner at Hospitality House in January. Our next dinner is April 30, 2018. If you would like to help prepare or provide food and/or serve dinner, please contact Katie Gurkin from the Missions Committee at 336-971-9642 or gurkink@aol.com.

Exciting News about Blowing Rock CARES- and ways that you can get involved too!

For nine years, Blowing Rock CARES (Children Are Really Special) has been helping feed hungry neighbors in Watauga County through a food pantry. For the past four years this ministry has been operating out of Rumble. In fall 2017, the Rumble Session voted to assume administrative oversight of Blowing Rock CARES. This means that Blowing Rock CARES remains a separate non-profit from Rumble and keeps their 501 c3 status. The ministry will keep separate financials and continue to be directed by an independent board. Where Rumble will play a role is with this board. The Rumble session will have a liaison to the board and approves all board members. The Blowing Rock CARES board, through the session liaison, will keep the church updated on the ministry's progress. The Rumble Session and Missions Committee also hope this new relationship will help even more Rumble members to volunteer with the ministry.

On Sunday, February 4, Rumble will celebrate the ministry of Blowing Rock CARES, give thanks for the founder and board president, Linda Laughter, and offer our prayers for the new board. New board members are: Katie Gurkin (continuing board member), Tim Harris, Stephanie Hankins, Wayne Holliday, Teresa Lentz, Carmen Patella (St. Mary's Episcopal Church) Ray Pickett (Blowing Rock community), Sylvia Tarleton. The board has one open position that they intend to fill with someone outside of Rumble in hopes of increased community involvement with Blowing Rock CARES.

How can you support Blowing Rock CARES?

The shopping cart will remain in the office reception area and you are encouraged to bring your monthly food donations to help stock the shelves of the food pantry.

There are also immediate volunteer opportunities with Blowing Rock CARES. The pantry needs four volunteers, comfortable with greeting clients and operating a computer database, to serve one Monday a month each from 8:45-12:00. Other volunteers are needed to shop for food (large quantities) to fill the pantry shelves, unload food, and staff the pantry. Some volunteer jobs are on Monday mornings and some can be done when it is convenient for the volunteer. If you are able to assist, please contact Tim Harris at timharris\_2@charter.net or Teresa Lentz at lentzt@gmail.com

WinterFest Rotary Charity Chili Challenge

Kudos and thanks to BRC Board member, Sylvia Tarleton, husband Cullie, and daughter Janet, for setting up and running BRC's entry in the Chili Challenge last Saturday. The Challenge was won by High Country Breast Cancer with $353. BRC raised $153. Kudos and thanks, also to The Green Park Inn and Chef Jason Clay for donating a great chili entry, and to Tonya from the restaurant staff for bringing the chili and serving it to visitors.
