Called to Worship ††† Empowered to Serve
A Mission Church
Bringing Members In, Sending Disciples Out

Dear Rumple Family,
I looked back at my May Slate and Stone cover article to discover that a month ago it was also raining. But, the promised May flowers have begun blooming and the beautiful color of the High Country is all around us now.

As June arrives, so do many familiar faces into the doors at Rumple. It's been such a wonderful gift to me, this second summer here, to recognize returning faces and to greet friends who we have not seen since last summer or fall. It is a joy to welcome back seasonal, affiliate members and friends of Rumple. We'll celebrate this re-connection with a church lunch on Sunday, June 10, after 11:00 worship, in the Fellowship Hall. We'll also receive more new members that morning so the lunch will be a great way to greet our newest friends in Christ.

This is my second summer but I am still getting used to the new rhythm of the calendar at Rumple and that summer means more and not less. As we look ahead to summer I am excited that Rumple will once again be feeding the families of children from Blowing Rock school who receive free or reduced lunch during the school year. Every two weeks, 9 families will receive a food box from Rumple (who will once again partner with Blowing Rock CARES for this effort.) Please read the announcement on the Missions page of this Slate and Stone if you'd like to volunteer for this important ministry. Rumple will also be collecting medicine to send with a mission team from First Presbyterian Church in Boone who are headed to Chiapas, Mexico, we'll have a school supply collection challenge again this summer for the Back2School Drive for Watauga County Schools, and on August 19th we'll celebrate our 100th Grandfather Home Sunday And, that's only a portion of what we will be doing in mission together!

Also this summer Rene Cuthill and I will again lead a small group Bible study, we will welcome at least three new church staff, and we have a really fantastic Vacation Bible School planned for late June. Our youth will take a mission trip to Greensboro and attend the Montreat Youth Conference. And, each week we'll gather for worship, all of our Sunday School classes will continue, new groups of Salt Shakers will begin, and our choir and music staff will continue to share their talents with us.

No one will ever hear me say that things are quiet at Rumple in the summer! All I have shared is just a portion of our life and mission together. Thanks be to God for this active and vibrant family of faith!

Every blessing. Your Pastor,
Kathy

Children's Ministry

There's a whole new plan for

Vacation Bible School at Rumple in 2018.

The dates are June 22-24-Friday night, all day Saturday, and Sunday morning. Camp Out VBS: Getting S'more of Jesus is the theme. And, our VBS attendees will be getting outside to learn about Jesus and about God's good creation! VBS is for all children 4 years old through 5th grade. Help spread the word. You may sign up on rumplechurch.org or pick up a registration form in the church office. Can you help with VBS this summer? Volunteers are needed in all areas. Please contact Lou Moore, moorelf@gmail.com.

Children's Ministry

The ASU Choral Scholar program has been a meaningful addition to our church in at least three ways: it serves as an outreach for college students that might otherwise not attend a church, it provides a performance opportunity for students while earning some spending money, and it supports the adult choir program with professionally trained voices. We are at the end of our choir year for our scholars and look forward to being able to offer the same opportunities in the fall. Please consider supporting this ministry with a financial contribution. Be sure to notate "ASU Choral Scholar," in the memo line of your check.

Hymn for June by Dave McCollum

Last month our Children's Choir sang an arrangement of the hymn, "All Things Bright and Beautiful." The text is by Cecil Frances Humphries Alexander (1818-1895). Mrs. Alexander was best known for her poems and hymns, nearly 400, written for children. Beginning with the chorus, 'All things bright and beautiful, all creatures great and small, all things wise and wonderful the Lord God made them all', Alexander sets up a hymn of praise that celebrates God's creation culminating in our ability to not only recognize God's creation but to share in its daily re-creation. Although most of the hymn boasts the fruits of God's creation, there is also a wink at life's hardship in the text; "the cold wind in the winter." It is quickly contrasted to "the pleasant summer sun." This contrast of opposing viewpoints is also evident in stanzas that have long ago been edited out by hymn committees and/or editors. Let's look at an example using "All Things Bright and Beautiful." I hope it will give you an insight on how hymnody is an ever-changing artform that we utilize in worship each week.

The following comments are taken from the book, "A Functional Art: Reflections of a Hymnwriter," by Timothy Dudley Smith (Oxford University Press, 2017). Smith uses an omitted stanza from "All Things Bright and Beautiful," to make a point of how text can be misinterpreted according to not only the context of time and place but also something as simple as punctuation. One of the original stanzas, now omitted, was interpreted as seeking to sanction invidious class distinctions.

The rich man in his castle,
the poor man at his gate,
God made them, high and lowly,
And ordered their estate.

You can see how a red flag could vigorously spring to mind for the congregant as they sang! Timothy Dudley Smith sheds some light on this stanza highlighting two reasons to dispute misinterpretations for the third line of text.

Initially, the text was written as a hymn to teach small children about the Creed. Mrs. Alexander wrote 'All Things Bright and Beautiful,' to highlight the first line of the Creed, 'Maker of heaven and earth'. The word 'made' appears in every sentence. Secondly, the third line of text can be interpreted and misinterpreted by observing the comma punctuation. Without the comma, 'God made them high and lowly', can be interpreted God assigning a lot in life, favoring some and not others. With the comma, 'God made them, high and lowly', emphasizes whether we are rich or poor, all are equally God's creation, borrowing from the Scripture: 'The rich and poor meet together; the Lord is the maker of them all' (Proverbs 22:2).

Even with some new insight on the problematic line of text, you can understand how it was, nevertheless, taken out of the more recent hymnals. The subject of castles, classes, and estates speak of a bygone era. To the main point, however, we understand all-too-well our earthly inequities as compared to God's love and grace. No matter our time or lot in life, God made, and continues to make all things bright and beautiful. Thanks be to God!

Dave

Congregational Care Workshop—June 3, following 11:00 worship in Fellowship Hall

In the May Slate and Stone "AppFaithHealth" was mentioned a couple of times. This is a partnership between Appalachian Regional Healthcare System and local faith communities, launched in 2015 and led by the Rev. Melanie Childers--a long-time Chaplain and Director of Pastoral Care at Watauga Medical Center.

A three-page article by her about developing such a partnership appeared in the recent past in the national publication of Presbyterian Older Adult Ministries Network.

Similar guidance in Community Education is now being offered to us by Chaplain Virginia Peurifoy of the local branch of Medical Services of America in their "Faith Community Health Partnership." Our Congregational Care Committee cares for you through all stages of life and has chosen the workshop topic of "A guide designed for our members to share information helpful to their loved ones beyond typical 'Advance Directives'." You will go home with a customized booklet as a gift to your loved ones with detailed practical information.

Please reserve time on your calendar for your attendance just after Sunday 11:00 worship on June 3 in the Fellowship Hall. Light snacks will be provided. Questions, contact Barbara Julien elder and chair of Congregational Care.

Rumple will host a Welcome Class on June 10 Would you like to become a member or an affiliate member of Rumple? Rumple receives members and affiliates (members who retain membership in their church away from Blowing Rock but "affiliate" themselves with Rumple as well) throughout the year. The next Welcome Class will be on Sunday morning June 10 at 9:30, in the Pastor's study. Folks who wish to join will also have the opportunity to meet with the Session and be received as members that day. Please email Hazel, in the church office if you plan to attend June 10.

Rumple Vision Team is nearing the end of the their interviews- but it's not too late to make your wishes heard!

The Vision(Dream) Team, appointed by the Session, is busy reaching out to members of Rumple to engage in conversation about your hopes and dreams for this family of faith. Would you like to be a part of a conversation with a Vision Team member? Please call Elder Jim Crowell, 295.9853. Vision Team members will be concluding their interviews in early June in order to make a full report at the June Session meeting.

Rumple Member PHOTO SHOOT Coming Soon !

Your Congregational Care Committee has arranged for LifeTouch Photography to take member portraits for a new photo directory. This will take place in August, in our Fellowship Hall. Use this photo session not only for your Rumple member photo, but also for any additional portraits you might want, such as: grandchildren-with-you, favorite-pets-with-you, or even extended-family-with-you, etc. Dates and more details to follow soon.

Rumple on a Mission

We believe that Christ's work of reconciliation is made manifest in the church as the community of believers who have been reconciled with God and with one another; that this unity of the people of God must be manifested and be active in a variety of ways: in that we love one another; that we experience, practice and pursue community with one another.

We believe that God, in a world full of injustice and enmity, is in a special way the God of the destitute, the poor and the wronged; that God calls the church to follow him in this; for God brings justice to the oppressed and gives bread to the hungry. – from the PC(USA) Confession of Belhar, September 1986

Summer 2018 Missions - child and youth services

THANKS to the generosity of this congregation, Rumple collected over $1000 in the Pentecost Offering on May 20! This funding will help support child, youth, and young adult ministries of the PC(USA) Presbyterian Mission Agency and Rumple's Food 4 Families program.

Rumple will participate again this year in the Food 4 Families program to provide food during the summer months to families with children on free or reduced cost lunches in Blowing Rock. We need volunteers to shop for food, package food, and deliver food. If you are interested in helping with this food ministry, please email Tracy Markland, marklandtracy@gmail.com.

If you are not available to volunteer for shopping, packing, or delivery, you can still help! We need non-food items to add to the delivery boxes. June 3- toothpaste/toothbrushes; June 10- dish detergent; June 17- soap/body wash; June 24-laundry detergent. We will have a bin in the church lobby labeled for these "extras."

We will begin the Back 2 School collection in July. This program provides school supplies to students in Watauga County. More information to come in late June.
