

RUMPLE: CALLED TO WORSHIP AND EMPOWERED TO SERVE

The Youth will host our Second Sunday event today. Instead of lunch, we will have desserts with a Puerto Rican theme! Join us for some tasty treats in the office reception area and learn more about our Mission Trip to Puerto Rico this June.

Blowing Rock CARES is a food bank that helps provide basic non-perishable food to families and individuals in Watauga County. We will continue our support of Blowing Rock CARES in 2019 with First Sunday collections. The February items of need are canned pineapple, canned tomatoes, oatmeal (round cardboard container), pancake/waffle mix, syrup, pudding/gelatin mix, and toilet tissue. You may bring them any-time during the month of February and leave them in the shopping cart in the office reception area. The food pantry is open for clients on Mondays from 9 am to noon right here at Rumple.

Special Adult Sunday School Class offering continues today in the choir room from 9:30 – 10:30 am. The class will be based on a DVD entitled, "The Question of God," by Armond Nicholi, Jr. Dr. Nicholi compares the lives and teachings of CS Lewis and Sigmund Freud.

The new flower chart for 2019 is up and ready for sign-ups. Please consider providing the flowers for the sanctuary on Sunday to celebrate or remember a special loved one or event. The chart is located in the glass case in the office reception area, near Hazel's desk.

Our pastor Kathy is away on vacation through Thursday of this week. If you have a pastoral emergency while she is away, please contact Elders Jane Rogers or Cullie Tarleton who are on call in Kathy's absence. They will know how to be in touch with Kathy, if necessary. You may also call the church office and the staff will help you be in touch with Jane or Cullie.

As the staff transitions to new roles with our modes of communicating, please send any announcements for the bulletin, enews, Slate and Stone, or website to both Hazel and Holly through the end of this month. Enews deadline is Thursday of each week. The March Slate and Stone deadline is February 21.

The church calendar is now on the home page of the Rumple website! For the most up-to-date church calendar information, check the website!

PRELUDE

"What a Friend We Have in Jesus"

Scott Sturtevant

+CALL TO WORSHIP

In Christ, the God of heaven has made his home on earth.
Christ dwells among us and is one with us.
Highest of all creation, he lives among the least.

He journeys with the rejected and welcomes the weary.
Come now, all who thirst, and drink of the water of life.

Come now, all who hunger, and be filled with good things.
Come now, all who seek,
and encounter the abundant love of the almighty God.

Text: Reginald Heber Music: John Bacchus Dykes

+CALL TO CONFESSION

+PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Almighty God, you are eternal, gracious, loving, and steadfast. We come into your presence knowing that your mercy is beyond our deserving. None of us is worthy of your tender care. We confess before you our sins of self-righteousness, pride and possessiveness. Remove our blinders to our faults and increase our sensitivity to those around us. Renew your peace within us, that we may approach you with confidence and serve you with joy. We ask it through your Son, our risen Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

This term Ordinary Time describes the parts of the liturgical year that are not included in the major seasons of the church calendar (Advent, Christmas, Lent, Easter.) Ordinary time includes the Monday after the Baptism of our Lord Sunday through the Tuesday before Ash Wednesday, and begins again the Monday after Pentecost through the Saturday before the First Sunday of Advent. Ordinary time can be understood in terms of when we are living out our Christian faith and the meaning of Christ's resurrection in ordinary life. Some churches do not use the term Ordinary Time but instead refer to the seasons as "after Epiphany" and "after Pentecost." Ordinary Time is often referred to as the "green season," because green is the usual liturgical color for this period of the church year

Welcome to all who have come to worship God at the Rumble Memorial Presbyterian Church this morning. If you are a guest or a visitor, this church family welcomes you. We invite you to fill out a visitor card or leave your contact information on the fellowship pad. The Rumble family would love to get to know you and share information about the ministries and missions of Rumble. If you would like to receive weekly news from Rumble, please leave us your email address with that noted. If you have questions, please speak to one of the ushers, elders or staff.

Would you like to become a member or an affiliate member of Rumble? Rumble receives members and affiliates (members who retain membership in their church away from Blowing Rock but “affiliate” themselves with Rumble as well) throughout the year. If you would like to become a member or an affiliate member, you may indicate on the fellowship pad or one of the visitor cards. The next Sunday morning Welcome Class will be early this spring, or you are welcome to join at a monthly session meeting, the 4th Monday of each month.
