SLATE and STONE

August 2019

Called to Worship Empowered to Serve
A Missional Church
Inspiring Disciples, Creating Community

Dear Rumple Family,

As I write, I am enjoying another beautiful summer morning in Blowing Rock. (Please remind me, in mid-February, that summer is coming and is the most glorious time to live in the High Country.) I also love this time of the year at Rumple because the pews are filled with friends and guests from so many different places. It is so joyful to worship in the summer months and reconnect with brothers and sisters in Christ who return to us each year.

Summer seems to have flown by and one of the great gifts of our summer at Rumple has been the ministry of our intern, Camille Loomis. Camille has been such a blessing for us with her worship leading, her pastoral care, her teaching, her mission participation, and more. We will offer Camille our blessings for her final year at Duke Divinity School and thank her for her ministry among us during 11:00 worship on August 4. If you are here, I hope you will join me in thanking her.

I remain really excited about the continuing work of Rumple's Visioning Process. Begun in spring 2018, this process continues with energy and enthusiasm! We are entering the final phase this summer- the Implementation Phase! At their June meeting, the Session adopted the Vision Plan presented to them by the Vision Team. This includes "big ideas" for ministry in the four "cornerstone" areas: Worship, Mission, Education, and Community. Jim Crowell and Maurice Ewing have agreed to work with me on leading an Implementation Team which the Session will appoint at their August meeting. This group will be responsible for coming up with a plan to implement the exciting mission and ministry opportunities presented in the Vision Plan. I am grateful for the 75+ folks who have been a part of this process already- at one stage or another. I hope that many of you will agree to be a part of the Implementation Plan- a strategic plan for ministry for the next 2-3 years. A copy of the Vision Plan, adopted by the Session, will be available on the church website- on one of the tabs on the home page- by August 1. I hope you will take some time to read it and, when asked, join in a part of the implementation!

I look forward to this month of August at Rumple and a special blue grass service on "Grandfather Home Sunday," August 11, a blessing of the backpacks on August 18, and a celebration of how Rumple continues to "make and impact" on August 25.

Every Blessing.

Kathy

Christian Education at Rumple

Annual Visiting Scholar event in September !

Rumple is pleased to host Dr. Norman Wirzba, Sept. 14 – 16th ! A professor at Duke Divinity School, Dr. Wirzba has focused on the theology of Creation, and how practicing Sabbath rest is better understood as the climax of Creation. Many refer to Wirzba's works as commentaries on "environmental stewardship" or "creation care".

Dr. Wirzba's theme will be "Sabbath and Sustenance: Living Faithfully in God's World." Join us to hear his lectures and sermon which will address questions such as, "How do we keep the Sabbath ?" and "How does our food matter in God's Creation ?"

Some of Dr. Wirzba's books include: The Gift of Creation (2009), Living the Sabbath (2006), Making Peace with the Land (2012), Food and Faith (2011), and The Paradise of God (2003). Many of these books will be available for checkout in the Rumple Church Library starting in August.

In preparation for our Scholar weekend Dr. Davis Hankins, Assistant Professor of Religious Studies at ASU and Rumple member, will lead three Sunday School sessions before Dr. Wirzba arrives, at 9:45 a.m. on August 11th, 18th, and 25th, in the upstairs classroom of the Education Building.

On September 15th Dr. Wirzba will offer a Q & A session during the Sunday school hour, at 9:30 a.m. He will preach at our 11 AM service. A lecture/discussion will then be held that afternoon at 5:00, and another on Monday morning, September 16th starting at 9:30 AM. All lectures will be held in the Fellowship Hall. Childcare will be provided.

Raised on a farm in western Canada, Wirzba studied theology at Yale Divinity School, and philosophy at Loyola University in Chicago. He is the father of four children and is married to Gretchen Ziegenhals.

During our special Epiphany worship service, each worshipper received a star word. Each of us was asked to keep our star word and to reflect on the message or invitation that God was giving to us through it. We would love to hear more stories of how God has spoken to you through prayer and reflection on your star word this year. Please email any stories or experiences to Kathy, pastor@rumplechurch.org

On Sunday, August 18, during 11:00 worship, Rumple will offering a "blessing of the backpacks." All children and youth in preschool through high school are encouraged to bring their backpacks to worship. The congregation will offer a special prayer for the children and youth and present them with a special gift to put on their backpack to remind them that the church family will be praying for them throughout the school year.

GRANDFATHER HOME SUNDAY

Sunday, August 11 is Rumple's 101st annual- Grandfather Home Sunday During the 11:00 worship service that morning we will welcome a group of local blue grass musicians for a special blue grass worship service. This group is coordinated by Rumple's own Bruce Hill and Lance Perry. Rumple will also welcome staff members from Grandfather Home at both worship services. The staff will share updates about the ministry. And, Rumple will receive a special offering for Grandfather Home as Rumple has each year since Rev. Tufts first challenged Rumple to do so in 1918!. Come celebrate Rumple's longest running mission and join in the support of vulnerable children in our state.

Choral Scholars Fundraising: As of June 23 we haven't received our $7500 goal. Thanks to all of those that have donated! If you haven't given yet, please consider supporting the music program at Rumple!

Around Rumple

Grateful Rumple is Making an Impact in the name of Jesus Christ! Early in the summer, worshippers received a detailed document celebrating the faithful stewardship of all the pledges and offerings shared with Rumple in 2019. Throughout the summer missions and ministries have been highlighted to celebrate the myriad of ways that Rumple is “making an impact.” This celebration will continue throughout the month of August as we begin to look ahead to 2020 and how Rumple can continue to make an impact through our expanded mission and ministry in Blowing Rock, the High Country, and beyond!

Celebration of over 1200 composition books collected for the Watauga County Back2School Drive! Thank you to everyone who contributed to this effort.

ANNUAL PICNIC ON THE LAWN

The annual Rumple Picnic on the Lawn is after worship on Sunday August 11, Grandfather Homer Sunday. This will be catered by Come Back Shack again this year with a vegetarian option. Look for the sign up sheets in the fellowship pads or email Jessica.

Children’s Ministry

Rumple’s first ever “Music & Mission Camp”

Rumple’s first ever “Music & Mission Camp” took place June 22-25 with 14 energetic and enthusiastic youngsters and a host of willing Middle School and adult volunteers. After being greeted each morning by Sue Meacham, the day began with Energizers and music choreographed by Riley and Laurel Kiker. The Godly Play Bible story of the day told by storytellers Stephanie Hankins, Camille Loomis, Kathy Beach, and Shirley Harris followed. The children then responded to the story with craft activities led by Ann Rhyne, Linda Liesegang, and Bonnie Ewing. Cristy McKinney and Will Kirkland planned and supervised daily recreational activities, and Lou Moore engaged the children with science explorations where they discovered that, like with God, nothing is impossible! Lynn Henderson and Don Bolick guided the children through mission activities where they learned about the Blowing Rock Cares Food Pantry, packaged goodie bags for Ransom Street public housing residents, experienced the amazing work of Wine to Water, and thanked our local fire department. Of course, there was plenty of snacking thanks to the ample donations of the Rumple Women’s Circles, organized by Linda Mauldin. The week culminated with the musical “Unselfie: Living Selfless in a Selfie World” which was presented to parents and then again to the congregation at worship on July 28. The line from the musical that seems to best sum up this fun, tiring, fantastic week in the life of Rumple is, “It’s not about thinking less of yourself; it’s all about thinking of yourself less!”

Music and Mission camp was a huge success at Rumple! Thank you to Lou Moore who served as the director and coordinator and to the team of volunteers who helped make the week a fantastic experience for the children!!!

Wednesday afternoon programming for children will begin shortly after school starts. Watch your email, the bulletin, and enews for details!!!

The youth and adults who participated in summer mission trips and retreats are thankful for all the support they received from the Rumple family!! Thank you for making all these experiences possible for our youth!

Sunday school for youth continues each Sunday. Sunday evening Youth Fellowship (6th– 12th grade) will be begin again once school starts. Watch your email for details.

Rumple on a Mission

Summer Missions – Child and Family Services

Through the generosity of Rumple's congregation, we have awarded grant funding to 10 local agencies that support children and families. In addition to this summer's focus on child and family services, the Missions Committee actively coordinates many other endeavors to give support to those who desperately need it. There are many programs and the need is great, so great that we've divided them into 4 categories or sub-groups!

Local Hunger/Food Insecurity
Healthcare/Housing/Trauma/Elderly
Youth Care/ Education Needs
Beyond Local Missions

We invite you to join our team. We meet every second Monday at 5pm in the church library. Besides your active participation through goods drives, fundraisings, special offerings, and pledges - all crucial to our success; we welcome your ideas, expertise, and fellowship too.

Food 4 Families Continues

Thanks to the dedicated volunteers at Rumple and Blowing Rock C.A.R.E.S., food boxes are being distributed every two weeks to eleven Blowing Rock families this summer. This program helps families on free or reduced cost lunches during the school year by providing additional food during the summer months. There are many ways you can help with this effort. We still need non-food items to add to the food boxes such as shampoo, body wash, toothpaste, laundry and dish detergent. There is a bin in the church lobby for these Food4Families "extras". Help is also needed to pack and deliver the boxes. Please contact Tracy Markland, marklandtracy@gmail.com

Back2School

July's collection of composition notebooks was very successful! Thanks to all who helped our Watauga County students in need have the supplies they need to start the school year off right!

Blowing Rock C.A.R.E.S. 1st Sunday Food Collection - August 4

Blowing Rock C.A.R.E.S. is a food bank that helps provide basic non-perishable food to families and individuals in Watauga County. The Blowing Rock C.A.R.E.S. food pantry is open for clients on Mondays from 9 am to noon right here at Rumple. The August items of need are canned fruit (natural juices or light syrup), canned vegetables (whole kernel & creamed corn, green beans, green peas, carrots, beets, mixed - no salt added if possible), soups (tomato, chicken and rice/veggies, beef and rice/veggies, potato, vegetable), condensed milk, peanut butter (chunky & creamy), toilet paper. Please bring your items on August 4th or anytime during the month and place them in the shopping cart located in the church lobby.

Puerto Rico Mission Team Experiences, August 4 Our group who travelled to Puerto Rico to assist in much needed building repairs and maintenance has safely returned with stories to tell. Please plan to join them during the Sunday School hour on August 4 when they will share their experience with us in the Fellowship Hall.

Grandfather Home Sunday, August 11 Members from Rumple toured Grandfather Home in Banner Elk on Saturday, July 27. Rumple was recognized as being part of a longstanding family of support over the past 101 years. The group learned about the current challenges facing today's desperate youth and how the programming needs have changed in residential treatment since the early days when Edgar Tufts saw the need to house children. On August 11 we will hear from representatives from Grandfather Home when they join us for worship and we celebrate being a continual part of this important mission.

Session Notes July 2019

Kathy began the meeting with prayer.

Emily Leonard offered devotions expressing how we experience transitions as a church and in our own lives. Our church is experiencing transitions through the ideas brought forth from the visioning team and focus groups. Through it all God works with us. She cited the transition in the Old Testament when Joshua took over for Moses from a passage in Exodus, and from Matthew 28 where Jesus states, "I am with you always even until the end of the age."

Kathy offered prayer for joys and concerns of our congregation and friends.

A called Session meeting was approved for July 28th for the purpose of accepting new members to Rumple Church.

Kathy expressed appreciation for the musicians/actors from the Lees McRae presentation of the Edgar Tufts play during our services on June 30th.

Our Duke Divinity intern, Camille Loomis thanked the congregation and Session for her time here and expressed how welcoming the church has been and how meaningful the experience has been in helping her progress towards her divinity degree. She stated that Rumple was the perfect learning site and a model of a teaching church to demonstrate the hands and feet of Christ in our community.

Session then heard reports from several committees.

Having no further business, the meeting was dismissed with prayer.

Respectfully submitted,

Curt Salthouse, clerk

Hymn for August by Dave McCollum

“Yahweh,” the God of the Israelites, whose name was revealed to Moses as four Hebrew consonants (YHWH) called the tetragrammaton, was at one point in history believed to be too sacred to utter. I can’t remember the source but another description of the word takes the opposite stance describing each breath we take as uttering God’s name (Yahweh): “Yah,” as we inhale or take air into our body, and “Weh,” as we exhale air from our body. Each breath, over 8 million breaths per year, testifies our utter dependence to God.

Our breath, along with the wind has long been connected to the Holy Spirit. At the time of this writing, I’ve just returned from the annual conference of “The Hymn Society of the USA and Canada.” This year’s conference was held in Dallas, Texas. The theme of the conference was based on a hymn text by Thomas Troeger entitled, “Each Breath is Borrowed Air.” The hymn begins with this text: “Each breath is borrowed air, not ours to keep or own, and all our breaths as one declare what wisdom long has known.” Our very breath is a gift from God. But it isn’t a gift we can possess. Don’t believe me? Try holding it. Our body is hard wired to take a breath, and in very short order, release it. No sooner than we receive the gift, do we have to let it go, setting us up for our next. Our breath is the source of life. And just as one day we took our first breath, one day we will take our last breath. The gift of the breath and the Holy Spirit of God is the source of hymn texts.

One such text is this month’s hymn; “Breathe On Me, Breath of God.” Edwin Hatch, the writer of this hymn, was a learned man. He taught at Oxford University in Great Britain and Trinity College in Quebec. His field of study was ecclesiastical history. Hatch’s lectures “On the Organization of Early Christian Churches” were presented at Oxford and translated into German by the noted theologian Harnack. Despite his resume, when it came to expressing his faith, Hatch was as simple and unaffected as a child. The hymn text, “Breathe On Me, Breath of God,” is filled with one-syllable words and expresses a simple heartfelt prayer. Although the words Hatch chose were simple, he knew the meaning was profound. At man’s creation, “God breathed and man became a living being (Genesis 2:7). At our re-creation through Jesus, the breath of God brings spiritual life and power.”

Let’s look at the text: 1. “Breathe on me Breath of God, fill me with life anew, that I may love what Thou dost love, and do what Thou wouldst do.” The hymn calls on God to bestow the gift of breath. Not just any breath, but the breath of the Holy Spirit. Stanza one summons God to breathe His will into our lives. Giving us free will, God is well aware that our choices will not always be God’s will. With each breath we can choose to turn toward God or turn away. But as we live, let us move toward loving and doing that which God would have us do. 2. “Breathe on me, Breath of God, until my heart is pure, until with Thee I will one will, to do and to endure.” The second stanza goes beyond actions to ask for a pure heart and at the same time recognizing that this life will have moments to endure; moments to call, again, on God’s grace. 3. “Breathe on me, Breath of God, till I am wholly Thine, till all this earthly part of me glows with Thy fire divine.” Stanza three asks for enough breath to share God’s love with others. 4. “Breathe on me, breath of God, so shall I never die, but live with Thee the perfect life of Thine eternity.” (Edwin Hatch, 1835-1889) And, finally, stanza four calls on the power of the resurrection to overcome the power of death, overcome the loss of our breath, and finally to claim eternal life.

As the Troeger hymn text at the beginning of this article states, “Each breath is borrowed air.” Life is as fleeting as our breath. We have each received life from God. All of our breaths are a testament to God’s grace. How we choose to live our lives is ultimately our choice. But God loves us and is as close as our breath. God will never leave us, even as we take this life’s final breath; God is there to begin our new life, the promise of eternal life. Thanks be to God (Yahweh). A-men.

HOSPITALITY HOUSE DINNER

Thanks to the generosity of many we provided a well received supper to our neighbors at Hospitality House. On Monday evening we experienced JOY and necklaces! One resident presented to the ladies who served necklaces he made and another resident offered a beautiful blessing before our meal. Four Duke Divinity Interns joined in serving. The fellowship we all shared will continue to bless us in our memories.

Around Rumble and In the Community

CAMILLE'S CORNER

Dear Rumble family,

It is hard to put in to words the gratitude I feel for this summer experience. From sharing meals in your homes, praying together in Sunday worship, gathering around the table to discuss mission projects, and learning about High Country history, I have loved every day with you. Rumble is an extraordinary place. It is thrilling to be part of a church community where Sunday morning is a continuation of the week's fellowship, not the only occasion. When I sit in class this semester, I will be thinking of you all and remembering all the ways Rumble welcomes God's peace and enacts God's love to others. If Rumble welcomes a Duke intern next year, I may stash myself in their suitcase!

Please stay in touch! You can reach me by phone: (703) 501-6425; by email: camille.loomis@duke.edu; or by snail mail (my favorite - I would love to be pen pals!): 506 N. Buchanan Blvd, #12, Durham, NC 27701.

Thank you, again, for allowing me to share this summer with you. Matthew and I plan to come visit this fall to enjoy the autumn foliage and cure our impending "High Country homesickness." How long does the New River stay warm? I have to get one more river tubing trip in!

I leave you with one of my favorite prayers, a traditional Gaelic blessing:

May the road rise up to meet you. May the wind be always at your back. May the sun shine warm upon your face; the rains fall soft upon your fields. And until we meet again, may the God that loves us all hold you in the palm of His hand. Amen.

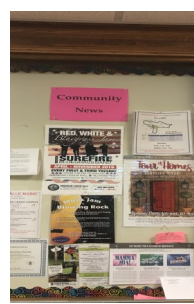

With love,
Camille

Locking Doors On Sunday Morning: In a continued effort to be mindful of our safety on Sunday mornings, the Session revisited our policy for locking doors on Sunday mornings at their April and May meetings. During the first hymn on Sunday morning, the elder of the day will lock all of the outside doors to the main church building. The only doors that will remain unlocked during worship at the main sanctuary doors and the outside door closest to the sanctuary, that offers access to the office reception area. If you need to leave the sanctuary on Sunday morning during worship, you may exit by the door to the left of the chancel or, at the back, through the main sanctuary doors.

Quick reminder office hours are Monday thru Thursday from 9-4. All communication needs to be sent to Jessica at office@rumplechurch.org. Also please include all Slate and Stone info for next month by August 22 as well as any dates needed on church calendar.

If your community group has an event that you would like to promote, please leave a flyer with information in the church office. It can be displayed on our new Community board. This is our main place for communicating community-wide events.
