Liturgy Corner

It is said that in the first 5-10 seconds of meeting someone, we are able to know what kind of a person we are meeting. How? Body language. It says a lot about who we are and what is our attitude. Jesus summed up the 10 commandments for us into two: Love of God and love of neighbor. How do we show our love? Are we open to greeting others around us or do we want to be left alone? Are we happy to be at Mass or are we just putting in our time? Do people see joy in us as Christians? Do people encounter Christ when they encounter us? St. Patrick prayed the wonderful prayer which includes "Christ be Before Me, Christ Behind Me, Christ over me, Christ within me, Christ all around me". Let all around us be Christ and his love that others may encounter him through us.

OLL Family Nights

This is a night to bond with other families here at OLL.

It will include food, fun & faith.

Thursday Nights (July 13, 27) in the Parish Hall over the summer.

The night will look like this:

6:00-7:00 pm—eat & visit

7:00-7:30 pm—Crystal Hoey will lead the women in a discussion while the men watch the kids.

7:30-8:00 pm—Scott Hoey will lead the men in a discussion while the women watch the kids.

Please join us to bond families together.

Virtue of the Week Chastity

The virtue by which we use our human sexuality in a responsible and faithful way. It means refraining from and avoiding all acts or thoughts that are not in keeping with God's plan for respect for the body

Blessed are the clean of heart for they shall see God. -Matthew 5:8

Creator God, you have made me in your image and likeness. Help me to make chastity a way of life so I remain freely open to your love and respectful of myself and others. Amen.

Religious Education News

OLL celebrates the one-year anniversary of Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (CGS) Atrium Level 1 for 3-6 year old children. The atrium is a classroom environment where child-size models of an altar, ambo, and baptismal along with scripture and liturgy are presented. Children learn by working with the materials themselves under the teaching principles of Maria Montessori. Catechists assist the child in developing their unique relationship with God. The motto of CGS is "help me fall in love with God all by myself." A special thank-you to:

Herman Bishop
Gale Bray
Debbie Carr
Crystal and Scott Hoey

Susan Lapierre-Jones
Tasha Macri

Welcome . . .

My Name is Gary Hessen. I was born in Detroit Lakes, Minnesota on July 17, 1960.

My mother Patricia was a fervent Catholic woman, from which the first foundation of our religious life flowed for both my sister Mary and I. We grew in our faith, teachings, and prayer life with the support from the sisters of Holy Rosary Catholic Church and School. My father, Willard Hessen was an outdoorsman and from him I learned at an early age to see God in His many wonders of creation. From a duck blind as the sun rose over the mist on the lake, to fishing in our boat and catching Northerns and Walleyes until sunset. From both my parents, I was able to develop the foundation for my spiritual and religious education; especially integrating scriptures into my daily life.

We left Minnesota for the warmth and beaches of Florida in August of 1969. It was quite a transition turning in my snow boots for flip-flops and my snow board for a surf board. Our family settled in Satellite Beach, Florida and I quickly became involved in altar serving, migrant ministry, and parish life at Holy Name of Jesus Catholic Church. I joined the Boy Scouts and enjoyed many summers camping, fishing, and traveling across the United States with my family and scout troop. I even earned my Eagle Scout Award and have treasured the principals of the Scout Oath and Promise throughout my life.

Upon graduating from Satellite High School, I attended Brevard Community College and UCF majoring in Elementary Education. Teaching ran in the family as both my parents were teachers; but thanks to the encouragement, and examples of great priests in my life: Fr. Fred Ruse, Peter Henry, and Paul Rankin and a certain calling to serve God, I attended St. Meinrad Seminary, IN and Mundelein Seminary, IL in discernment for the priesthood and received my Masters Degree in Theology from St. Leo's University. I have always had a strong faith and deep love in my heart for the poor and those suffering from social injustices. Mother Theresa and John Paul II are my models for service, along with our current Pope Francis and His "Joy of the Gospel."

It was during those formation years 1984 – 1989 that I helped form our relationship with our Sister Diocese in San Juan de la Maguana in the Dominican Republic. As one story goes, I met a beautiful girl named Charo and fell in love with her; we have been joyfully married now for 27 years. God has blessed us with so many good times and two beautiful children Patricia (26) and Timothy (23).

The calling to the Diaconate comes from wonderful encouragement, prayer, and support of so many people in my life. I am so grateful for our sister parish family at St. Joseph Catholic Parish in Palm Bay, FL., My wife and children, my sister Mary Lynn (Palm Bay), our pastor Fr. Jeremiah Payne, Fr. Bill Hanley, and especially my (lately departed) spiritual director and friend Msgr. Cleo Schmenk. It is the humbleness and humility of service that I most appreciate in this calling to the Diaconate. The call to bring others to Christ, not only in the Words we speak, but our actions of love and mercy.

I thank each and every one of you, the people who have been instrumental in my discernment and formation; your love and prayers have been a blessing in my life. In turn, I also pray that God will bless you; and that I will have many opportunities to experience your faith and friendship as we build the Kingdom of God here at Our Lady of Lourdes. May God use each of us to bring Glory and Honor to His name as we walk our faith journey together.

Peace and Joy,
Dcn. Gary Hessen

Se dice que en los primeros 5-10 segundos de conocer a alguien, somos capaces de saber qué clase de persona estamos conociendo.

¿Cómo? Lenguaje corporal. Dice mucho sobre quiénes somos y cuál es nuestra actitud. Jesús resumió los diez mandamientos para nosotros en dos: Amor a Dios y amor al prójimo. ¿Cómo mostramos nuestro amor? ¿Estamos abiertos a saludar a los que nos rodean o queremos que nos dejen solos? ¿Estamos felices de estar en Misa o solo estamos cumpliendo por obligación? ¿La gente ve el gozo en nosotros como cristianos? ¿La gente encuentra a Cristo cuando nos conocen? San Patricio rezó la maravillosa oración que incluye "Cristo esté delante de mí, Cristo detrás de mí, Cristo sobre mí, Cristo dentro de mí, Cristo a mi alrededor". Que todo lo que nos rodea sea Cristo y su amor, para que otros puedan encontrarlo a través de nosotros.

5.5 million children are victims of child abuse each year. The majority of cases reported involve neglect, followed by physical and sexual abuse. Be watchful for children... they depend on your eyes and ears.

What can you do?

- Know your neighbors and take an interest in the welfare of their children.
- Call Florida Abuse Hotline 1-800-962-2873 if you suspect child abuse.. Report on the website: <http://reportabuse.dcf.state.fl.us>.
- Pray for all children and their caregivers.

God places his children in our care.

Trust in the LORD with all your heart, on your own intelligence do not rely;
In all your ways be mindful of him, and he will make straight your paths.
Proverbs 3:5-6
