November Month of Remembrance

Liturgy Corner

During the month of November, we take time to remember all of the loved ones who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith. There is a special Book of Remembrance located near the Sanctuary next to the Paschal Candle (the symbol of Christ as our eternal light). You are most welcome to write in the book the name(s) of deceased loved ones.

We leave the book throughout the month of November to remind us all that November is a month to pray for the deceased. We will also include these names in our weekend Universal Prayers.

Mass Intentions

Each time we gather for Mass, we hear the priest say in similar words, “Remember also our brothers and sisters who have fallen asleep in the hope of the resurrection, and all who have died in your mercy; welcome them into the light of your face.”

Therefore, at every Mass, we remember those who have gone before us, whether or not their name is specifically mentioned during the Mass. We entrust their souls to God and know that he, in his infinite wisdom, will mercifully receive them into eternal life. It is nice to remember someone by name at a Mass but our prayers for them and for all who have died are received just as equally at every Mass, whether or not the name is specifically mentioned.

Religious Education News

“Why did God make you?” a catechism of the 1950s asked. It answered: “God made us to know, love, and serve him in this life and to be happy with him in the next.” That is what catechesis – religious education – is still about today. You can make a difference in the faith development of children by helping in our religious education programs as a catechist or assistant in the classroom. Teaching children in Pre-K through Grade 8 will deepen your own understandings of our faith and love of God.

THE CATHOLIC FAITH.
ON DEMAND.

Watch Hostia

“The Lamb of God,” “The Bread of Life,” “The Body and the Blood of Christ”... these are phrases we know from the Mass; but do we understand what they mean in the greater and deeper context of Scripture and Church teaching? Go to Formed.org and enter Parish Code 7RWM7V. Watch Hostia – The Power and Presence of the Eucharist.

Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA)

If you have not received all the sacraments of initiation (Baptism, First Communion or Confirmation) or have an interest in becoming Catholic, the RCIA group meets every Thursday 6:30 pm – 8:00 pm in the Apparition Room in the Ministries Building, 1626 Oak Street.

Sunday by Sunday – Sunday's 9:00- 10:15 am

A time for adults to discuss scripture, enjoy coffee, donuts and fellowship. Come join us in the St. Joseph's Room in the Ministries Building.

Contact Patty Taylor, Director of Religious Education for more information on all the above programs.

Online Giving . . . Online giving is an easy way to make your contributions to the parish. You can set up automatic contributions and are able to make changes at anytime. Go to <https://oll-church.weshareonline.org/> to set up your account. Thank you for your support of Our Lady of Lourdes Parish.

Family Consecration . . . Our Lady of Lourdes is supporting families who would like to begin praying together more. Join us for a 33-Day Consecration to Jesus through Mary. Contact Scott at scotthoey@ollmlb.org for a free guidebook (supplies are limited). The program, which is done in your home, begins on November 5 and continues through to the Feast of the Immaculate Conception, December 8.

First Annual St. Francis Nativity Festival . . .

On December 15-17, the parish will hold its first Annual St. Francis Nativity Festival. Each family is asked to bring a nativity set to the church by NOON on Friday, December 15th for display and blessing. Each set should have a brief, typed note about the set (i.e. what it is made of, where it came from, history, etc.) This is a wonderful way for parishioners to share Christmas traditions and beautiful nativity sets! With questions or for more information, please contact James at the Parish Office.

There are several ways to stay connected with our parish. Stay connected with our parish app. Download the app on your phone or tablet by visiting myparishapp.com. Like us on Facebook. Visit our website:

"I believe that Jesus is present in each of my classmates and in my teachers, therefore all my actions will show respect for Jesus."

Come Be A Witness for Life:
Catholics On The Bus For Life

Governor Rick Scott has scheduled another execution: Patrick C. Hannon is scheduled to be executed on November 8. Governor Scott's goal is to execute an inmate every 6 weeks. Catholics from all of our Brevard County parishes are invited to join "Catholics On The Bus For Life" to travel to Florida State Prison in Starke (near Gainesville) on November 8. We will participate in a Catholic Prayer Vigil across from the death chamber during the execution. It is a safe and expansive setting provided for us by the Department of Corrections and under their supervision. Please call Fr. Fred Ruse at Church of Our Saviour, Cocoa Beach, 321-783-4554 for information or to register.

Virtue of the Week Temperance

The virtue that helps us to keep our desires under control and to balance our use of material goods.

The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control.

- Galatians 5:22-23

Help me, God, to be happy with what I have instead of wanting more. Show me how to choose those things that are good for me and for others as I practice the virtue of temperance. Amen.

Noviembre

Mes de la conmemoración

Durante el mes de Noviembre, nos tomamos el tiempo para recordar a todos los seres queridos que nos han precedido marcado con el signo de la fe. Hay un Libro de Recuerdo especial ubicado cerca del Santuario al lado de la Vela Pascual (el símbolo de Cristo como nuestra luz eterna). Le invitamos a escribir en el libro el (los) nombre (s) de sus seres queridos difuntos.

Dejamos el libro durante todo el mes de noviembre para recordarnos que noviembre es un mes para orar por el difunto. También incluiremos estos nombres en nuestras Oraciones universales de fin de semana.

Myth: Strangers are the most frequent perpetrators of sexual abuse.

Fact: 80% of molested children are abused by a person they KNOW.

We must:

- ✓ Defend and protect children always.
- ✓ Call Florida Abuse Hotline: 1-800-962-2873 if you suspect a child is abused.
- ✓ Pray for all children and their caregivers.
- ✓ God places his children in our care.

Bulletin Deadline - Articles for the bulletin must be received no later than the Friday, one week prior to the bulletin print date.

Healing, Deliverance and Peace

Father Jose Maniyangat is a world known speaker and is an instrument of healing. He was ordained in 1975 in the Diocese of Thiruvalla, India. In 1992 Father Jose came to the St. Augustine Diocese and worked in several parishes. He retired from active parish duties April 15, 2016 to be able to share the Ministry invested to him by God with people around the world.

On Divine Mercy Sunday, April 14, 1985, Father Jose was on the way to celebrate Mass when he was in a fatal collision with a drunk driver. Father Jose, accompanied by his Guardian Angel visited Hell, Purgatory and Heaven.

During his time in heaven, Father Jose received a special message from God. He was told by Our Lord that the world was in great need of healing: “I need you. I want you to go back. In your second life you will be an instrument of healing, deliverance and peace to My people and you will walk in a foreign land and speak a foreign tongue.” and was given the gift of healing.

Fr. Jose has traveled to major cities of the United States and countries overseas to conduct Eucharistic Healing Services, retreats and conferences. Many miraculous healings have occurred at these services.

Those who are looking for healing of the mind, body and soul are invited to come and receive the healing power of Jesus Christ who is the Supreme Healer. Come experience the touch of God through the Eucharist, the Mass, worship and prayer.

Eucharistic Healing Mass will be celebrated
Tuesday, November 14, 7:00 pm
