

Hartford High, Bulkeley Win

Two Hartford schools will meet Saturday night at Boston Garden for the New England schoolboy basketball championship.

Hartford High routed Spaulding of Barre, Vt., by 92-58 Friday night in one of the semi-final games as Eddie Griffin led the Connecticut champion Owls with 24 points.

Bulkeley, Connecticut runner-up, trimmed East Providence, R.I., 57-40 in the other semi-final contest. Gene Reilly set the tempo with 26 points.

Gov. John Dempsey was on hand to root both Hartford teams to victories which set up a replay of their Connecticut title contest held two weeks ago.

For further details see sports pages.