

Hartford Takes Class L Track Title Again

STORRS — Hartford Public High School grabbed six second places Monday night en route to its second straight Class L State Indoor Track Championship at the University of Connecticut fieldhouse.

Hartford compiled 71 points to easily outdistance second place finisher Bulkeley of Hartford.

One state record fell in the competition with New Britain High School's Rich Edwards establishing a new standard in the long jump with a leap of 23' 7".

HPHS has won nine state titles under Coach Lindy Remingino.
