

By-Law - Appendix A

Healthy Sport Society League

Club Rules and Code of Conducts

This is the supplementary element to the By-Law of the Healthy Sport Society League. Members, and their parents / guardians (applicable for youth members only), and their guest shall abide these Club Rules, and any of violation of these rules may subject to suspension of their memberships, or forfeiture of their security deposit, or even be prosecuted for legal liability subsequently.

1. The clubs under the League will be divided into two categories: adults club and youth club (e.g. Healthy Sport Junior Club). For adults club, the member accepted shall be from age 18 to 55 inclusive. For youth clubs, youth member accepted shall be from age 7 to 17 inclusive.
2. The club shall maintain minimum 60% youth members in order to be qualified as a youth club. For adults who are eligible to apply the membership for youth clubs, only youth members' immediate adult family members can be accepted due to the limitation of adult percentage for youth clubs.
3. Members are fully responsible for personal items are lost, stolen or damaged at the scene of club gym sessions.
4. Members are fully responsible for their own safety. By signing the waiver to recognize the risks, any physical hurt is under members' own care.
5. Members shall not get into all use any of the facilities that are out of designated gym courts. Loss or damage to any of all facilities / equipment, damage or hurts to any other members, caused by misconduct of the member or their family member / guest, shall be liable by the member and their parents (applicable for youth members only). The league is not responsible for any of these situations.
6. Any arguments or mis-conduct that subsequently resulting in charges or sue cases caused by the club members or their family members, shall be fully liable by the member or their family. The league is not responsible for any of these situations.
7. No drink or food is allowed to be brought to the gym. The members and their relatives/ guests are responsible to keep the gym clean. Garbage and waste shall be carried by the members but not throw them inside gym.
8. Only non-remarkable indoor shoes are allowed when enter into the gym. Outdoor shoe shall be always kept outside of the gym.
9. All of club members or their parents (applicable for youth members only) shall fulfill the duty roster and or any other assigned volunteer work on time. These volunteer work are equally assigned to each members in turns by the League. In the case that the number of members greater than the numbers of volunteer requested, the Board will make random draw to determine the volunteers.
10. Each of members shall complete their registration and pay all required registration fee, member dues, any other designated fees and security deposit to the League. Registration fee, coaching fee and membership dues, any other designed fees are subject to non-refundable upon paid. The security deposit is to be held by the League until end of the season. The deposit will be voided or returned if the member doesn't violate any of the season.

11. All memberships upon registration are not subject to exchangeable, transferable or shareable.
12. All members shall play in turns, the maximum play time of each turn is 15 minutes. If the members play on courts continuously for two consecutive 15-minute, he / she shall stay out of courts for minimum 30-minute after the consecutive play.
13. Any members' relatives, guests are prohibited to enter into or use the court. Infants / child (age less than seven) guests / relative are only allowed to stay with adults on the bench inside gym.
14. Without getting authorization from the Board of Directors of League, any members' personal information, including residential address, image, voice recording, and video, and also any League's internal communications etc. cannot be released / disclosed to public, other parties, social media or agencies.
15. All members and or their parents (applicable for youth members only) shall attend the annual general meeting or special general meetings held by the League.
16. All members and their parents (applicable for youth members only) shall abide the instructions from the Club Representatives or coaches.
17. All members shall maintain their proper behavior during the gym session, respecting each other, abuse and arguments are always not allowed. Yelling, joking between members are always prohibited inside gym.
18. All members and their parents / guardians (applicable for youth members only) shall respect the Club Representatives, coaches, and any other Board directors, abuse, arguments or yelling to them are always prohibited.
19. Any complaints shall be delivered to the President or the Vice President via email.