

Charlotte Senior Amateur Championship

March 21-22, 2016 – Myers Park Country Club, Charlotte, NC

PRESS RELEASE

A group of male senior golfers residing in Mecklenburg County competed in the Inaugural Charlotte Senior Amateur Championship on Monday-Tuesday, March 21-22 at Myers Park Country Club. There were two divisions of play: a Senior Division for participants 55 and older, and a Super Senior Division for participants 65 and older.

The event kicked off early Monday morning with high winds and temperatures in the low 30's. John Rudolph (Senior Division) and Garrett Garland (Super Senior Division) successfully battled the tough conditions to take the lead with even par rounds of 71. Day two consisted of warmer weather and better conditions for scoring. In the Senior Division, Johnny Elam and Jim Gallagher made a late charge but John Rudolph ultimately prevailed with a total score of 144 (+2 overall). In the Super Senior Division, David Strawn chased down Garrett Garland on the back nine and tied him for the lead with a few holes to play. Both players battled it out over the home stretch, but Garrett Garland was able to bring home the victory with a total score of 142 (Even overall).

Congratulations to John Rudolph (Senior Division) and Garrett Garland (Super Senior Division) for their great play and for winning their respective divisions in the Inaugural Charlotte Senior Amateur Championship. Thank you to everybody who participated over the last few days, we look forward to another great event in 2017.
