

Charlotte Senior Amateur Championship
November 6-7, 2017 – Charlotte Country Club, Charlotte, NC
PRESS RELEASE

A group of male senior golfers residing in Mecklenburg County in the Second Annual Charlotte Senior Amateur Championship on Monday-Tuesday, November 6-7 at Charlotte Country Club. There were two divisions of competition: a Senior Division for participants 55 and older, and a Super Senior Division for participants 65 and older.

The event kicked off early Monday morning with sunny skies and warm conditions. 65 players competed for the 2017 title and after the first round, Jim Grainger and Robby Kirby took the lead in the Senior Division with scores of 72 (+1), while Garrett Garland secured the lead in the Super Senior Division with a score of 74 (+3). The second day consisted of rougher weather, with the players having to overcome rain for most of the day. In the Senior Division, the round one leaders played steady but did not have enough to compete with Johnny Elam, who shot a second round 65 (-6) to win going away with a two-day total of 138 (-4). In the Super Senior Division, Garrett Garland played great all day and held on for a five-shot victory to win the title for the second year in a row (two-day total score of 146).

Congratulations to Johnny Elam (Senior Division) and Garrett Garland (Super Senior Division) for their great play and winning their respective divisions in the Second Annual Charlotte Senior Amateur Championship. Thank you to everybody who participated over the past few days, we look forward to seeing you in 2018 at Carmel Country Club.
