

WEEKDAY MASS SHEET

HOLY WEEK

10 – 15 April 2017

THE SCRIPTURES

“In the first half of Holy Week the readings are about the mystery of Christ’s Passion. For the Chrism Mass the readings bring out both Christ’s messianic mission and its continuation in the Church by means of the sacraments.” (GIL 98)

OUR PRAYERS THIS WEEK

Candidates for the Sacraments; the Needy and Hungry of the World; Penitents and Wanderers

THE HOLY FATHER’S INTENTIONS

APRIL: Young People.

That young people may respond generously to their vocations and seriously consider offering themselves to God in the priesthood or consecrated life.

*In Lent we do not sing or say “Alleluia”: before the Gospel there are a variety of sung acclamations, but one that may be used every day of Lent, to the tune of the simple Alleluia is:
“Praise to you, Lord! Glory to you, Christ! You are the Word of God!”*

THE PASCHAL TRIDUUM

“Christ redeemed us all and gave perfect glory to God principally through his paschal mystery: dying he destroyed our death and rising he restored our life. Therefore the Easter Triduum of the passion and resurrection of Christ is the culmination of the entire liturgical year. Thus the solemnity of Easter has the same kind of pre-eminence in the liturgical year that Sunday has in the week. The Easter Triduum begins with the evening Mass of the Lord's Supper, reaches its high point in the Easter Vigil, and closes with evening prayer on Easter Sunday.

FRIDAY

GOOD FRIDAY

According to the Church's ancient tradition, the sacraments are not celebrated today. Today is a day of fasting and abstinence. Holy Communion may only be given to the faithful during the celebration of the Lord's Passion, but may be brought at any hour to the sick who cannot take part in the service.

The Liturgy of the Hours It is fitting to celebrate publicly the Office of Readings and Morning Prayer today. Evening Prayer is not said by those who participate in the Celebration of the Lord's Passion.

The Celebration of the Lord's Passion The celebration of the Lord's Passion takes place in the afternoon, about three o'clock, unless pastoral reasons suggest a later hour; it should not be celebrated later than 9.00 p.m.

SATURDAY

HOLY SATURDAY

According to the Church's ancient tradition, the sacraments are not celebrated today. Today the altar is left bare and the sacrifice of the Mass is not celebrated. If possible, the Easter fast is observed. Holy Communion may only be given today as Viaticum. The celebration of marriage is forbidden.

The Liturgy of the Hours It is fitting to celebrate publicly the Office of Readings and Morning Prayer today. The liturgical colour is Purple. Night Prayer is only celebrated by those who do not participate in the Easter Vigil.
