- (a) A contract between you and us will come into being in one of two ways:
 - (i) When you sign the quotation we and you will enter into a legally binding contract on the date you sign.
 - (ii) Where you and we agree orally that we should provide the Services then there will be a legally binding contract on the date of our oral agreement.
- (b) We suggest that before you sign the quotation or orally agree to us providing Services that you read through these terms and conditions. If you have any questions concerning them please ask us via info@envisionbasketball.com.
- (c) You should keep a copy of these terms and conditions for your records.

3. Providing the Services

- (a) Once we and you have entered into a legally binding contract we will normally start providing the Services to you straight away or on a date agreed between us without further discussion with you. Occasionally the Services will be provided at some other date or time or be dependent on a number of factors.
- (a) Our aim is to always provide you with the Services:
 - (i) using reasonable care and skill;
 - (ii) in compliance with commonly accepted practices and standards in the Sports and Fitness industry; and
 - (iii) in compliance with Victoria laws and regulations in force at the time we are carrying out the Services.

4. Days and times when we normally provide the Services and performance of Services away from the Premises

- (a) Unless you and we agree otherwise, we will provide the Services on normal working days and start work no earlier than 7:00 am and finish work no later than 8:00 pm. A normal working day for us means Mondays to Fridays, excluding any public or other national holidays.
- (b) The performance of the Services will take place on a third-party Premises, on a Basketball Court.

5. Materials

At the time we perform the Services we may use Materials such as fitness equipment to perform the Services.

If we do not have all the Materials we need to perform the Services. This may be for a number of reasons such as:

- (a) we have not provided an estimate and cannot reasonably establish what Materials are necessary until we start performing the Services; or
- (b) where we have provided an estimate, it may not have been reasonably possible to establish the need for particular Materials at the time we provided the estimate. The need for the particular Materials may only be revealed when we start performing the Services; or
- (c) whether or not we have provided an estimate, the condition of an item or the area which is the subject of the Services may only become apparent when we start performing the Services and it was not reasonably possible to establish it until that point.

6. Timing

6.1. Our responsibility to perform the Services by particular dates

We aim to carry out the Services by the dates and times we either agree with you or notify to you. But we cannot guarantee or provide a firm commitment that:

- (a) we will start performing the Services by a specified date or time; or
- (b) we will complete the performance of all the Services by any specified date or time; or
- (c) the performance of any individual part of the Services will be completed by a specified date or time.

6.2. What can happen if we cannot start performing the Services or complete performing the Services

If we do not start or complete performing the Services within a reasonable period from the date(s) we have agreed or notified, then you may either:

- (i) choose to continue to wait until we can start performing the Services or complete performing them; or
- (ii) terminate the contract.

- (b) Where we have started performing the Services and you decide you wish to terminate the contract you will only have to pay for any Services we have performed up to the date of termination. If you have made payment(s) to us in excess of the amount of Services we have performed, we will return the difference to you within 28 days of the termination.

6.3. Situations or events outside our reasonable control

- (a) In addition, there are certain situations or events which occur which are not within our reasonable control (some examples are given in paragraph (b), directly below). Where one of these occurs, we will normally attempt to recommence performing the Services as soon as the situation which has stopped us performing the Services has been resolved. In such circumstances, there may be a delay (sometimes a substantial delay) before we can start or continue performing the Services.
- (b) The following are examples of events or situations which are not within our reasonable control:
 - (i) where you make a change in the Services you wish us to perform (and this results in, for example, us having to do further work or wait for new or different Materials);
 - (ii) where we are unable to gain access to the third-party Premises to carry out the Services at the times and dates we have agreed with you;
 - (iii) where the areas on the third-party Premises have not been readied by the third-party provider (e.g. stadium) where you have agreed for us to perform the Services;
 - (iv) for other unforeseen or unavoidable events or emergency situations which is beyond our control.
- (c) The following are examples of events or situations which are not within our reasonable control:
 - (i) continuing to wait until we are able to recommence performing the Services. If you are required to make any payments during this period (for example if we and you have agreed that you will pay us in staged amounts) then we will not require you to make any of the payments required until we are able to recommence performing the Services; or
 - (ii) allowing you to terminate the contract. If you choose this option then you will only have to pay the full hourly rate of $80 per hour for any Services we have performed up to the date of termination. If you have made payment(s) to us in excess of the amount of Services we have performed, we will return the difference to you within 28 days of cancellation.

7. Price, estimates and payment

7.1. Our charges based on time spent

We charge for our Services on a time basis. We charge for each 1-hour session we spend in providing our Services. Our rates, excluding GST, for performing the Services are set out in the Pricing Schedule.

The following is an example of how our charging structure works: If we complete performing the Services within 50 minutes where the charging period is 30 minutes we will charge for 2 x 30 minute periods. If we go over into another 30-minute period by a few minutes, at our discretion, we may charge up to the last period completed.

7.2. Our charges based on an estimate

- (a) If we provide an estimate then we will charge you the amount stated in the estimate rather than a charge based on the time taken in performing the Services. Estimates and Quotes are normally valid for a period of 3 business days from the date they are given.
- (b) As we provide an estimate we may need to charge you a higher amount than stated in the estimate. This can occur for a number of reasons, in particular where:
 - (i) what you require us to do changes, or the amount of work or Services you require us to provide increases or is different to what we and you agreed before we started performing the Services; or
 - (ii) when we start performing the Services it becomes apparent that the amount of Services we will need to perform or the type of work that is involved is different to what we agreed before we started performing the Services and we could not reasonably foresee this before we started performing the Services.
- (c) Where the amount of work involved is greater than that stated in an estimate or quote (as set out in paragraph (b)) then following will happen:
 - if the amount of extra time we need to spend to finish performing the Services will mean that the extra amount payable by you will not exceed 28% of the amount stated in the estimate, then we will carry on providing and completing the Services without contacting you and obtaining your agreement;
 - (i) otherwise we will not continue performing the Services and we will seek your approval to the extra amount that you will need to pay, unless:
 - A. it is not possible to contact you within a reasonable time; or
 - B. it is not safe not to carry out and finish performing the Services (for example, your child becomes ill during a scheduled session and we are required to call an Ambulance or medical assistance).

7.3. When payment is required

Payment for our Services is made in two ways, either:

- (a) at the time, prior to performing the Services for group classes; or
- (b) in a number of staged payments for our ongoing programs (e.g. 12-month Elite Program), often involving:
 - (i) the payment of Month 1 before we commence performing the Services; and
 - (ii) the payment of the remaining amount which you will be invoiced in a number of fixed payments paid at regular periods.

Which option we will use will be indicated on the quotation.

7.4. GST

All amounts stated (whether orally or in writing) in Australian dollars are exclusive of GST.

7.5. If you do not pay when required to

If you fail to make payment by the date or time we and you agree, we may:

- (a) charge you interest (at an interest rate of 5%) on any outstanding amounts if those outstanding amounts remain unpaid for more than 14 days from the date of our invoice or when we asked you first to pay them; and/or
- (b) if the amounts not paid represent more than 5% of the total value of the Services we are to perform for you, and there remain some Services which we have not yet performed, then we may suspend performing the remaining Services until you make payment.

7.6. Where you seek to not pay amounts due to us

You will not refuse to pay any amount owing to us where there is only a minor or inconsequential defect or error in the performance of the Services. You will be entitled only to refuse to pay no more than a proportionate amount of any amount due.

8. Court Hire

You will be responsible for the booking and payment of a half-court (Basketball court) from a third-party stadium or club for us to perform our Services.

9. Travel

We service the South-East suburbs of Melbourne metropolitan area and Melbourne's Central Business District.

For suburbs within the North, North-East, and West, additional travel costs may apply. Please refer to our Pricing Schedule for these additional costs.

11. Exclusion and limitation of liability

- (a) We do not exclude or limit liability for our negligence or negligent omission which causes you or your child personal injury.

We shall only be liable for any loss or damage suffered by you which is a reasonably foreseeable consequence of a breach by us of this contract. - (a) Once we and you enter into a binding contract you will normally not be able to terminate the contract, except where we agree (e.g. due to long-term injury, medical circumstances, financial hardship) or as otherwise provided for in this contract.
- (b) If we agree to terminate the contract then you will be responsible for the full cost of:
 - (i) any of our time in performing the Services at a rate of $80 per hour, up to the date we stop providing the Services; and
- (c) In the circumstances stated in paragraph (b) we will first deduct the amounts for which you are responsible from any deposit you have paid. Any remaining deposit will be returned to you. If the amount owing is greater than the deposit we will return invoice you for the amount in excess of the deposit.
- (d) If you:
 - (i) purport to terminate the contract; or
 - (ii) give notice purporting to terminate the contract; or
 - (iii) otherwise do not fulfil your obligations (such as by not paying any sums due to be paid to us) in a way which amounts to you terminating the contract, we do not have to accept your termination of the contract except as provided in paragraph (b) or as otherwise provided for in this contract. However, we may choose to accept termination of the contract, and if we choose to do so you will be required to pay to us a reasonable amount for the losses and costs (including loss of profit) we have suffered. If you have paid a deposit, this will be retained and if our reasonable losses and costs (including loss of profit) are greater than the deposit we have retained we will require you to pay for our losses and costs in excess of the deposit retained.

14. Amendments to the contract terms and conditions

We will have the right to amend the terms and conditions of this contract where:

- (a) we need to do so in order to comply with changes in the law or for regulatory reasons; or
- (b) we are changing the rates we charge for the provision of Services as provided for in clause 7; or
- (a) we need to correct any errors or omissions (and this right includes the right to change any of the documentation which forms part of the contract), as long such correction is minor and does not materially affect the contract; or
- (b) we need to correct any errors or omissions (and this right includes the right to change any of the documentation which forms part of the contract), as long such correction is minor and does not materially affect the contract.
