Hi Parents and students!! We made it through the first week with math homework! I am excited that we were able to do it. I hope that it was not too burdensome. This will really help to foster some of the new concepts coming in the next chapter.

English is just full of verbs!!! That is the continued focus of our unit right now. I am happy to report that most everyone is doing very well in this unit.

After the Christmas break, we will begin reading Charlotte's Web on Thursdays during our reading time.

Thank you,

Mrs. Escobedo
