Romans 8:31-32

What, then, shall we say in response to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all-how will he not also along with him, graciously give us all things.

Hi Parents and students!! We will have a math test on Division on Wednesday this week. In English we will start another writing unit. We will be reading Charlotte's Web in Reading. Reading this book, and analyzing the characters, recounting the plot, discussing the beginning, middle, end, the problem and the solution will take up most of our time for the first half of February. I am hoping to stress the importance of reading carefully with this magnificent story. This will be their first taste of Cumulative testing on such a grand scale. This is not meant to be intimidating. I am hoping to get them to see how much fun it can be to delve into the story and find out how things change from the beginning to the end.

Thank you,

Mrs. Escobedo
