Hi Parents and students!! I am sure that we are all sick of hearing about Charlotte's Web, it will all be over very soon. This week we will wrap up our book with our movie and party day! Thank you, parents, for all that you do to support our class! We wouldn't make it without all of you. I have been blessed with the best group of kids with the best support systems EVER!

We have started a unit on time in math and in English we are doing another writing unit. Our pace will pick up from now until April. We most probably will be testing every other week in Math, English, Science and History. In Math and English we might be testing every week. Thank you for your help!

Thank you,

Mrs. Escobedo
