

Winter Outdoor Learning Fund

Backcountry Education Scholarship

The goal of the Winter Outdoor Learning Fund (WOLF) is to support and develop the local outdoor community through education fundraising, scholarship opportunities, and events related to winter outdoor pursuits.

This scholarship was created to extend education and increase safe decision making in the backcountry to local youths around Wolf Creek Pass. It is designed to cover the cost for one spot in a Level 1 Avalanche Course with the Wolf Creek Avalanche School or $500 towards a Wilderness Medicine course of the applicant's choice.

Name/age:

Guardian Signature & Phone Number (if under 18):

Address:

Email:

Phone:

2. If you are applying for an Avalanche 1 Course:
Do you have the necessary equipment for backcountry travel (AT, free-heel gear, split board, skins, beacon, shovel, probe, and backpack)? If you are in need of any of these items, they will be provided to you for the duration of the course.

Scholarship application deadline is February 15th, 2019, however, scholarships are currently available for those who apply and are accepted earlier.

Applications can be turned into the First Aid Room at Wolf Creek Ski Area or mailed to:
Winter Outdoor Learning Fund - PO Box 4652, Pagosa Springs, CO 81147