About Summer Edu.Fun.

Planning to improve your English Language skills abroad? We surely can help you get the language skills you need while learning more about the American culture. Our summer general English classes are based at the beautiful campus of Davis College in Toledo, Ohio. The college was established in 1858, and features large classrooms, a comfy student lounge, a cozy library, well-equipped computer labs, and more. Davis College has a small and friendly campus where students receive individualized and immediate attention.

Our students can join a variety of extra-curricular activities through which they can strengthen their leadership and interpersonal skills on and off the campus. These activities may include beach trips, picnics, mall shopping, movie nights, bowling, sports/gymnasium short-term membership, local attractions, and more.

By joining our Summer Edu.Fun. program, you will not only have an exceptional learning experience in small classes, but you will also enjoy supervised and organized social activities and attend various full-day excursions every Saturday. Our program calls deep attention to conversational skills by which students can learn to better speak the English language, hear and understand spoken English and engage in numerous conversational settings with native speakers of the English language. This will maximize students' learning exposure and assist them achieve better learning outcomes.

We take trust, safety, and ethics very seriously! Therefore, we only accommodate our students in a highly safe and secured homestay/hotel rooms while providing them with around-the-clock supervision to make all days filled with well-being, fun, and learning altogether.
